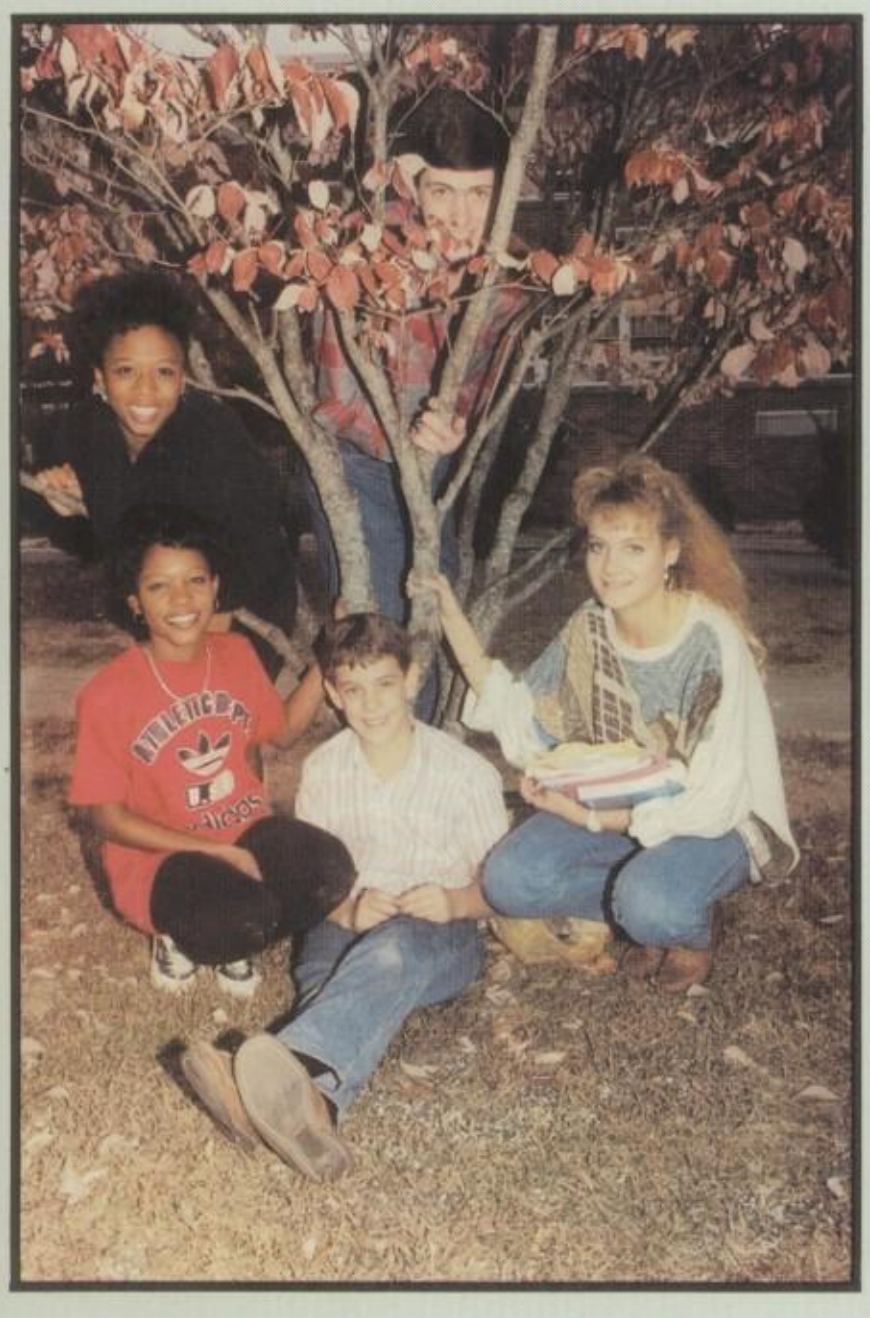
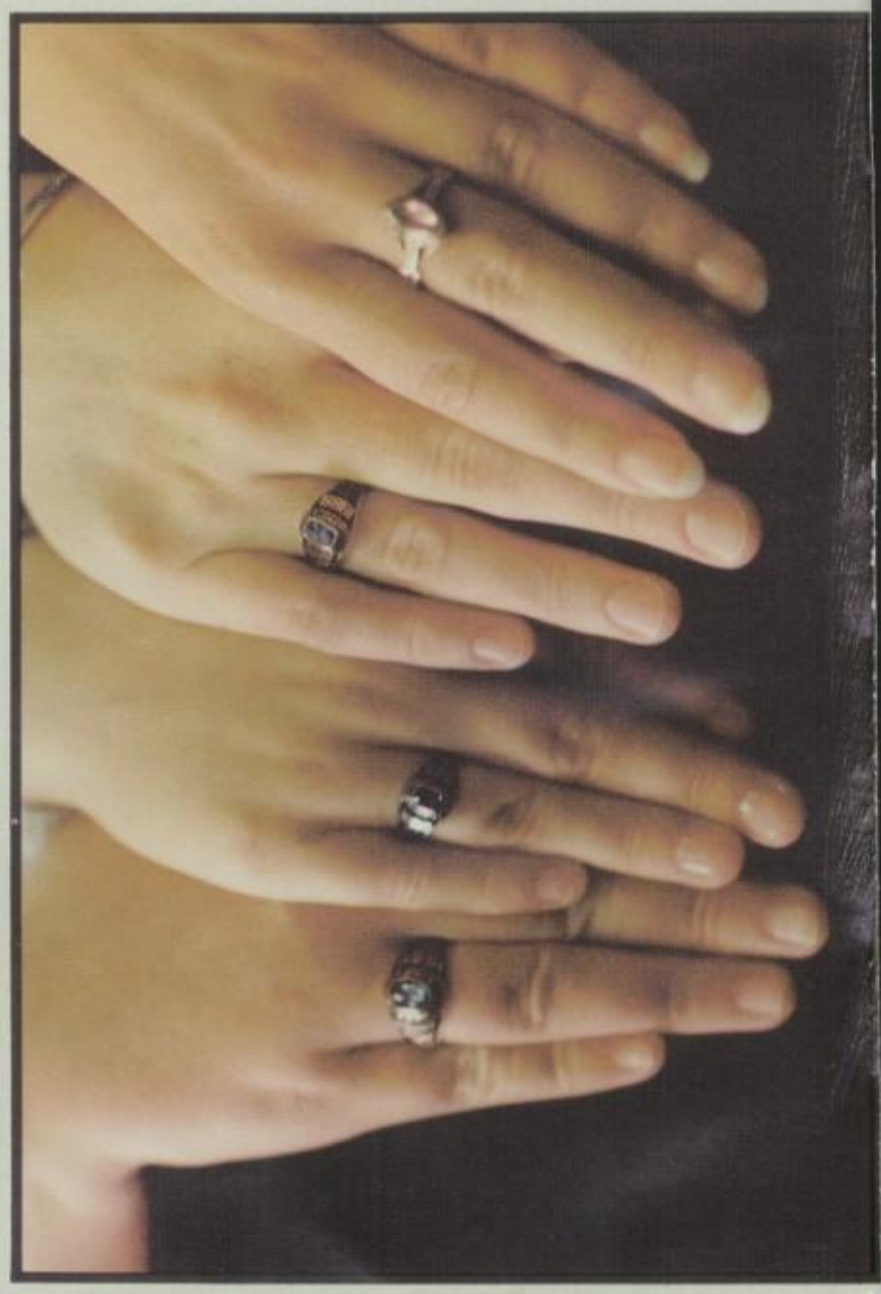
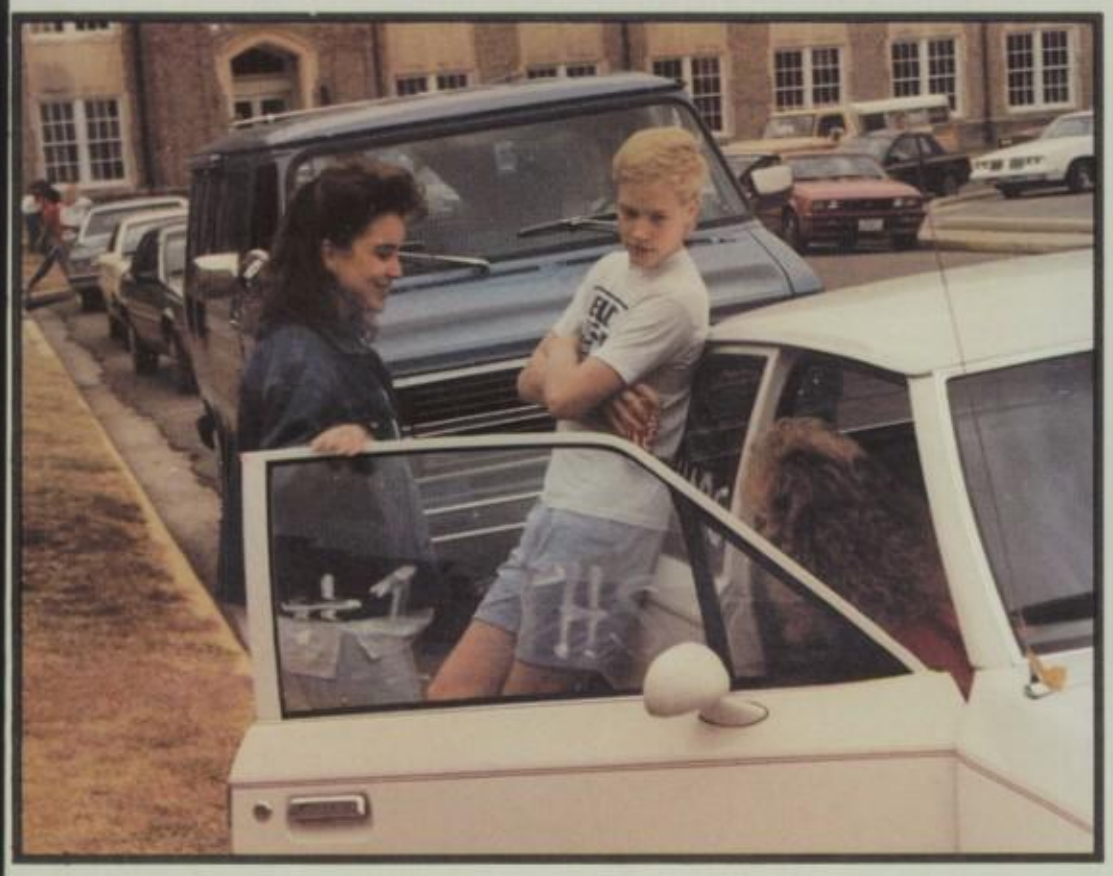
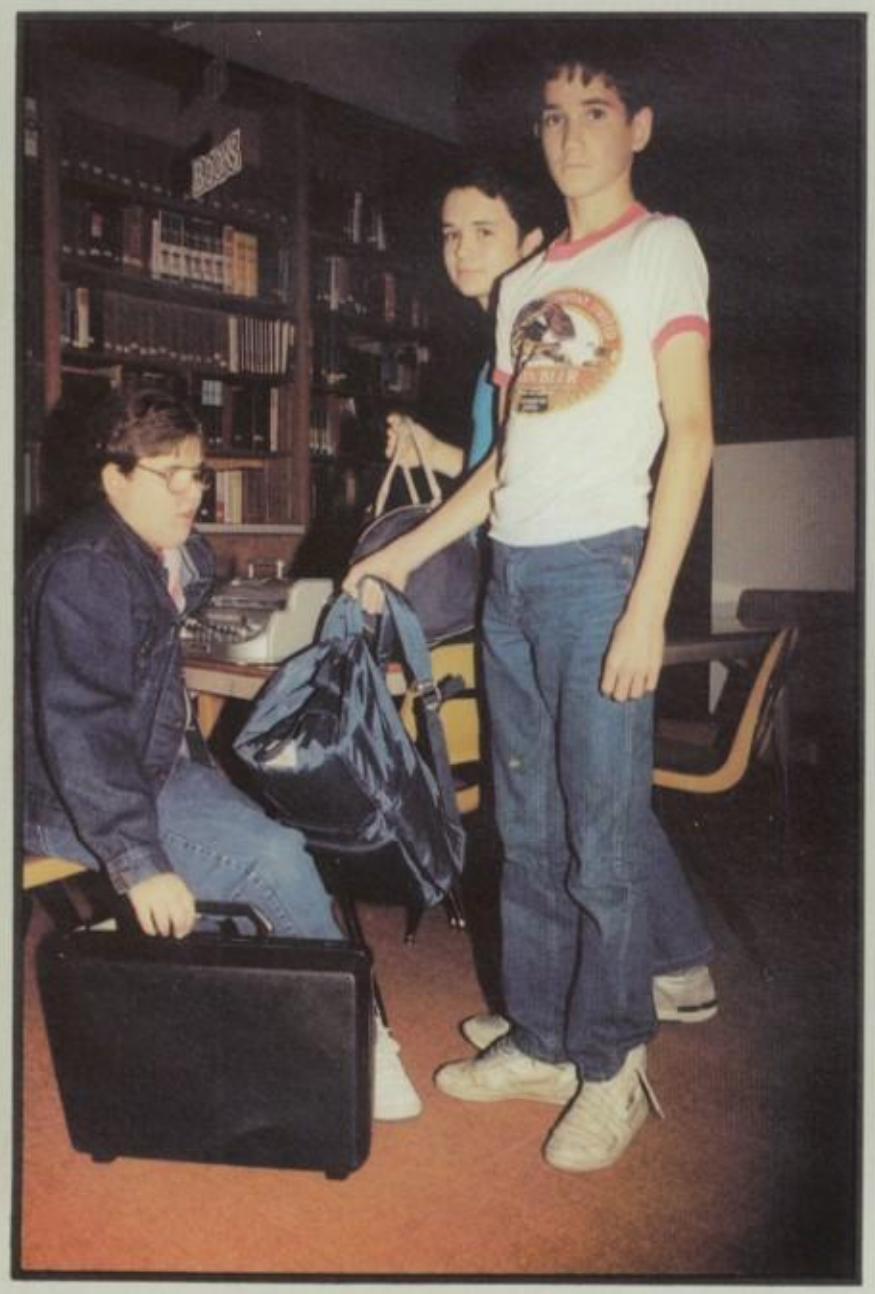
We've Only Just Begun . . .







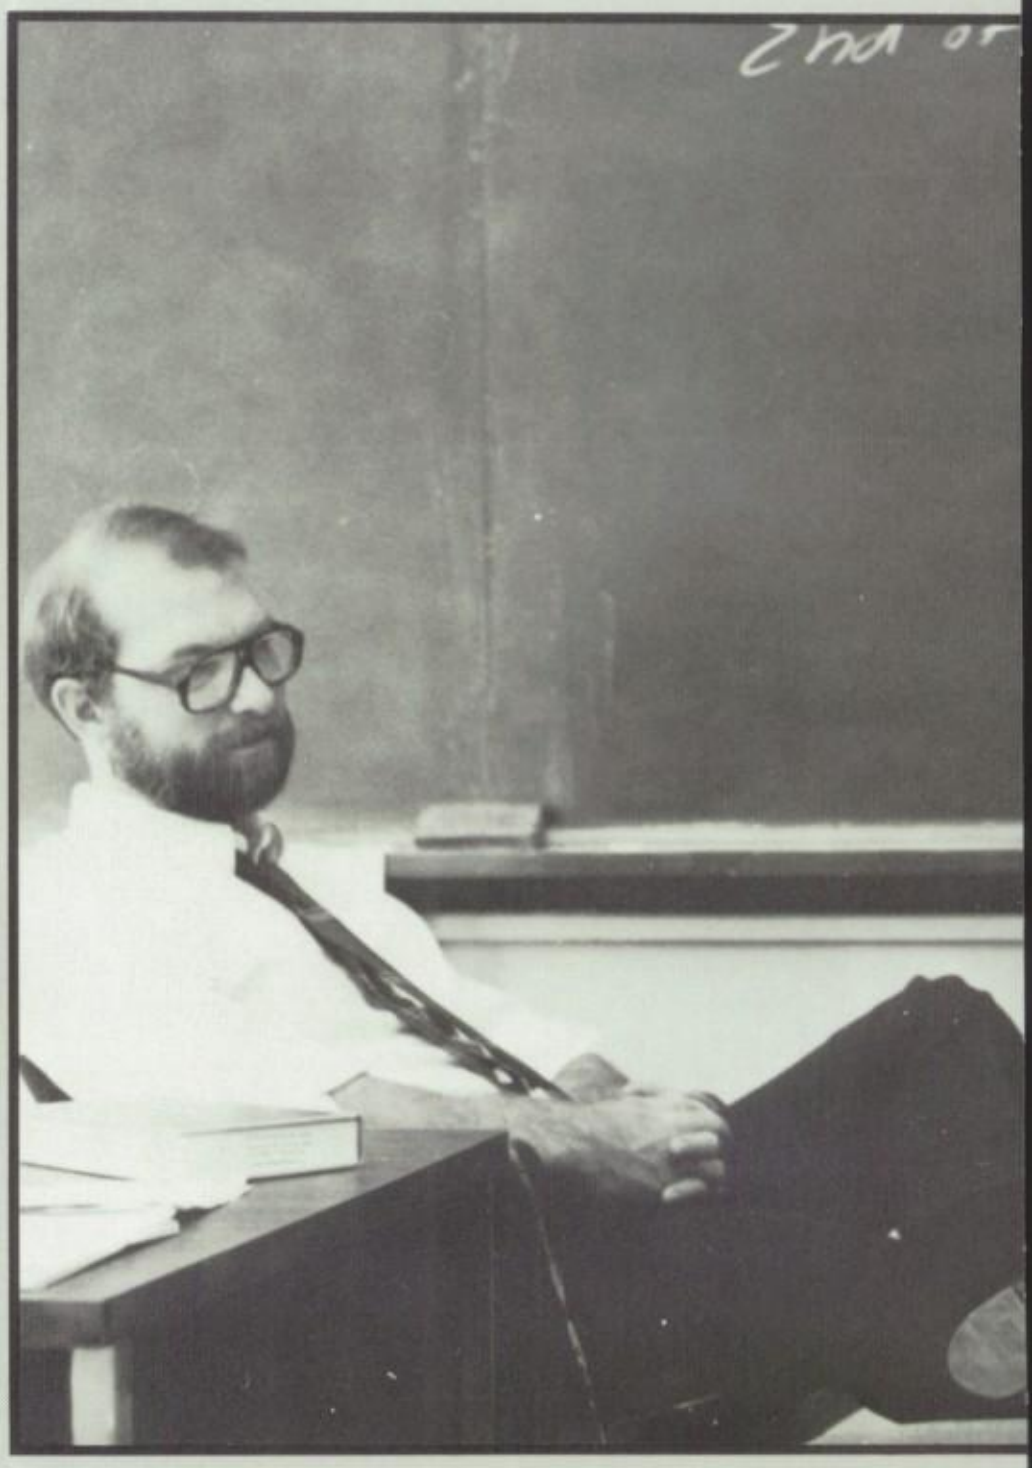


To Live.

The New Day Promises,

Jackie Tucker hurries to class but slows down to flash a friendly smile.

Mr. Rhodes giving free advice? Craig Ford knows there has to be a catch.



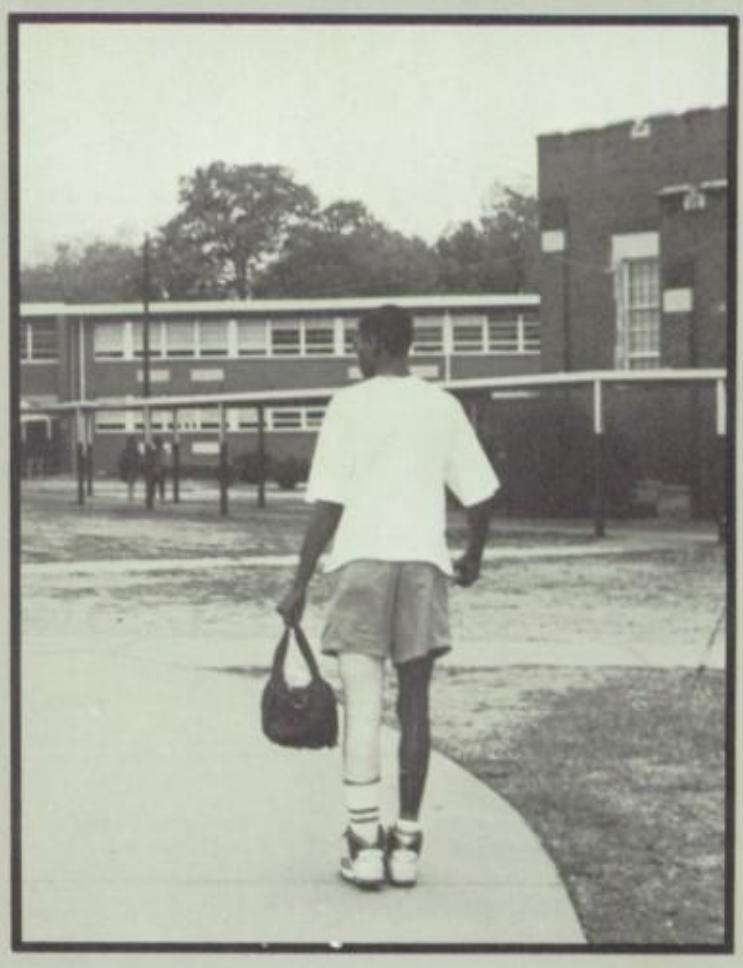
Jason Young, Ryan Haglin, and Sam Smith relax while other's continue to work.

One had better beware when Heather Knoop and Monica Fitch are in the kitchen.

A Wish For Luck . . .

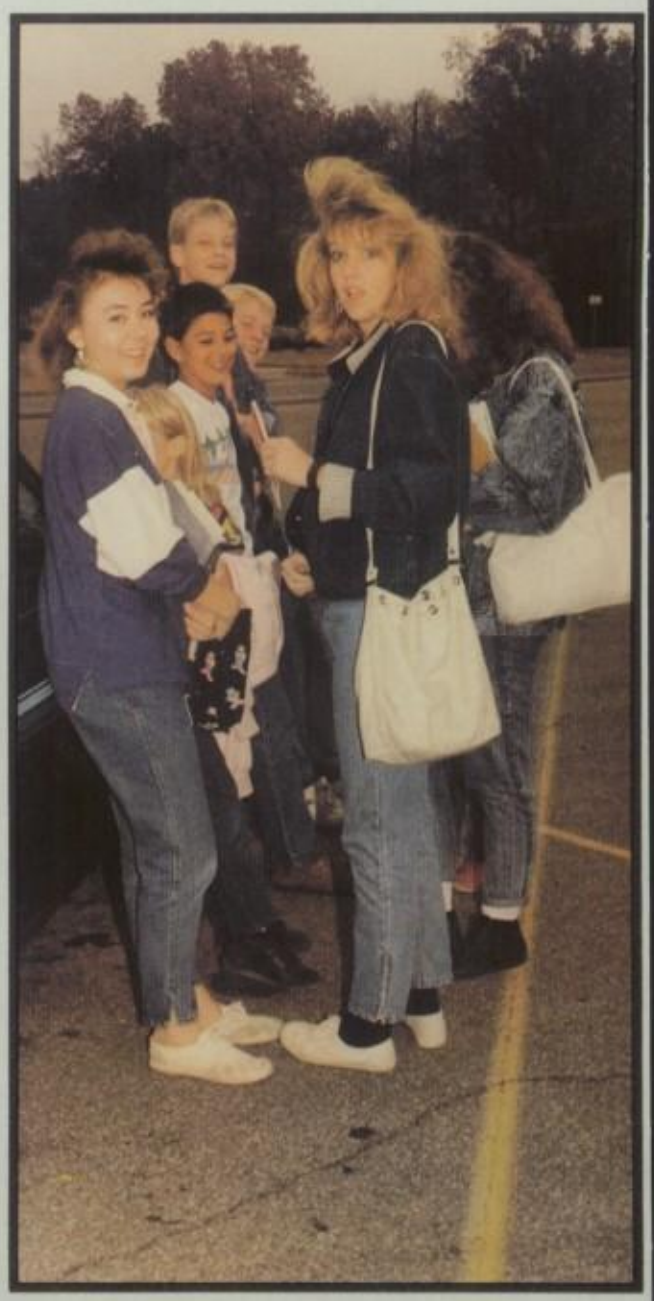
Wendy Wilson says, "Ubanda look! I think he's taking our picture!"

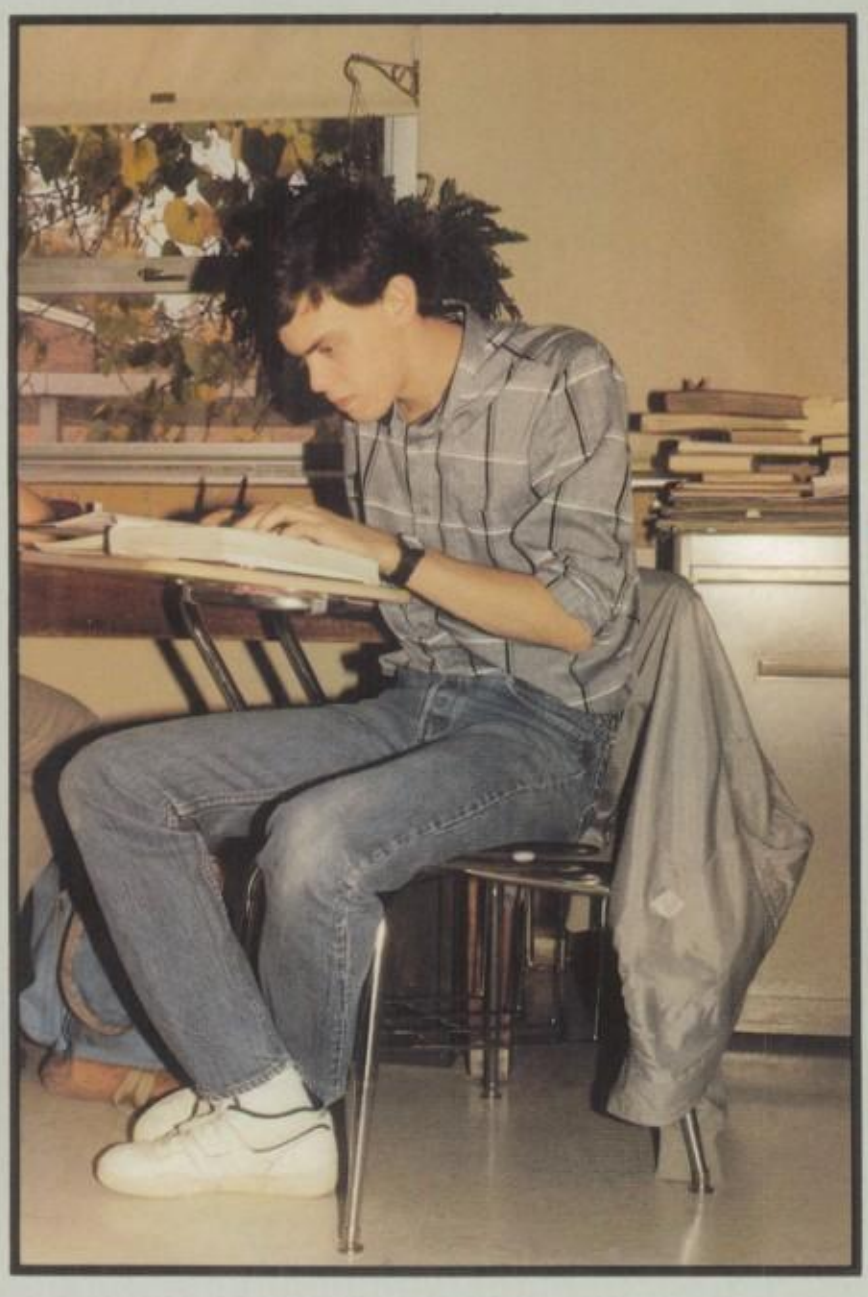
Rebecca Sinclair and Adam Howell make the most of their time together during the 3rd quarter of the football game.

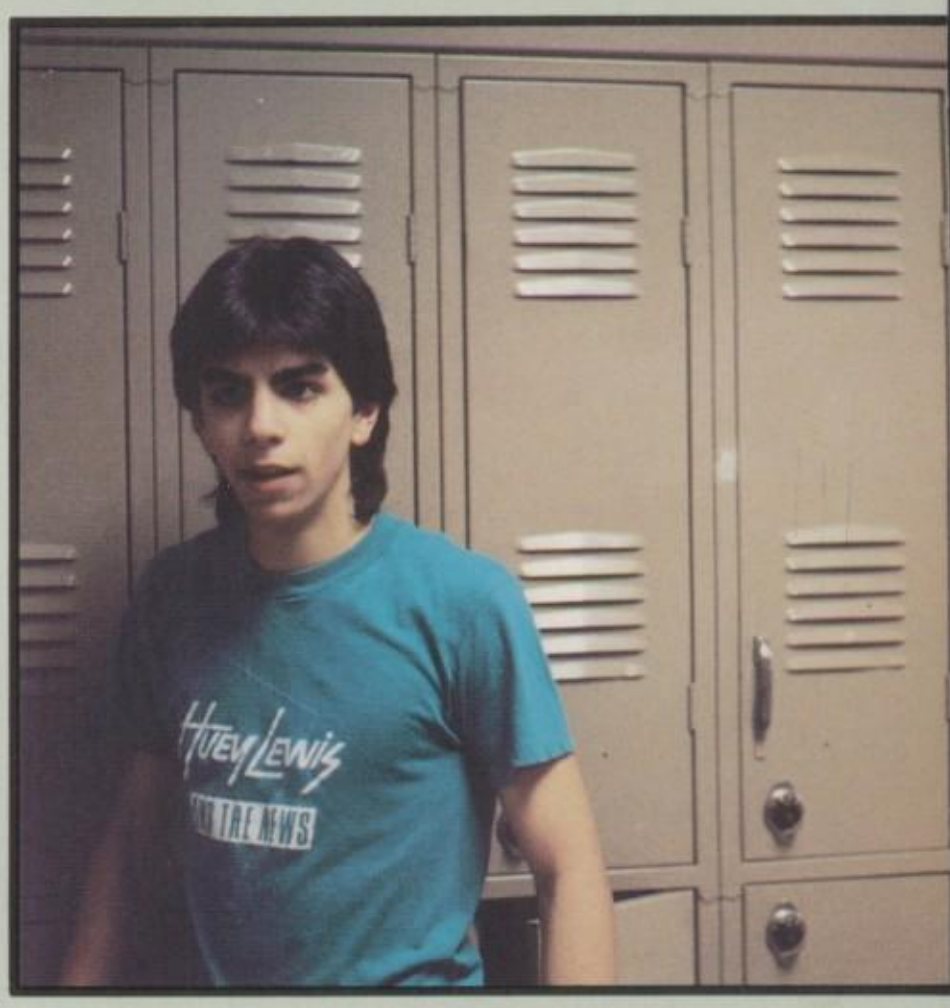


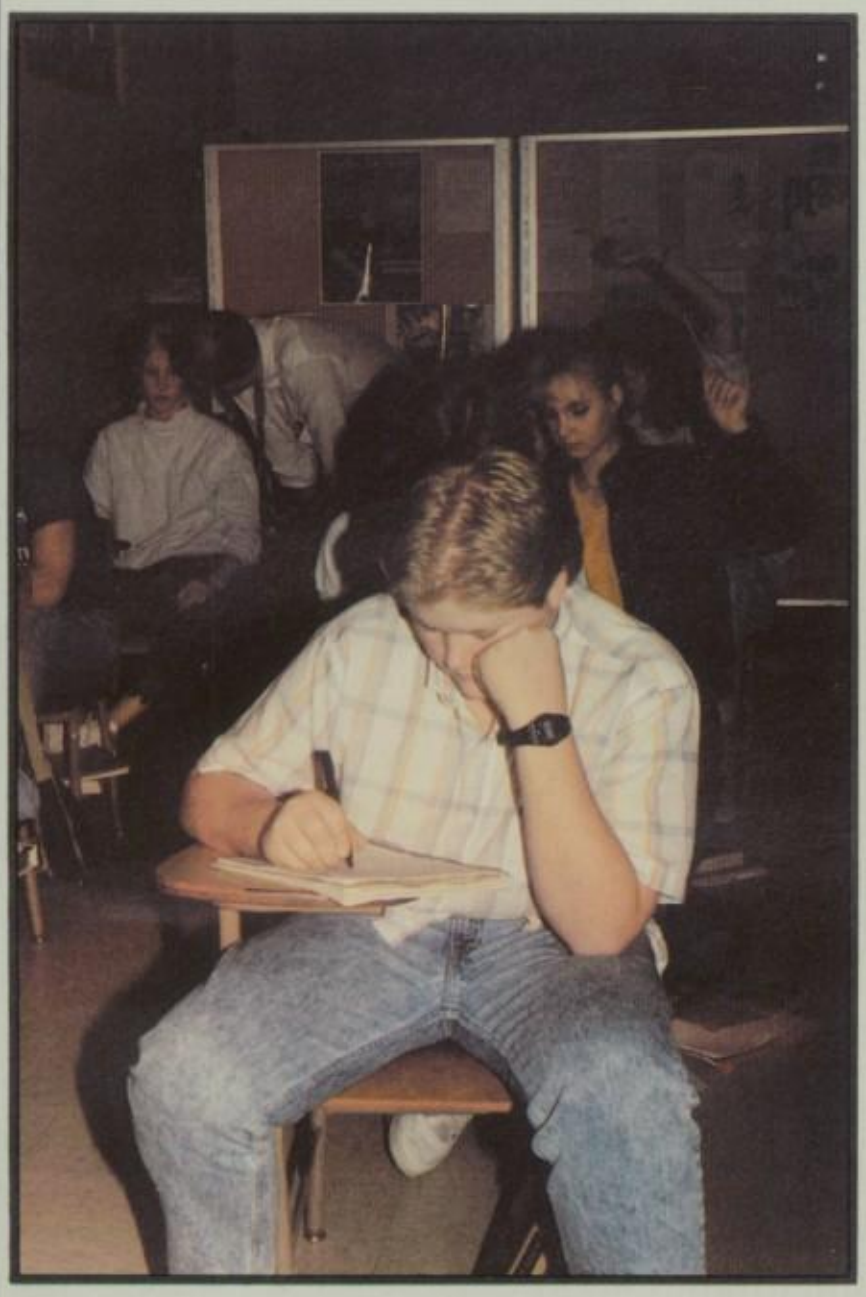
This unfortunate student tries his best to hobble to class on time.

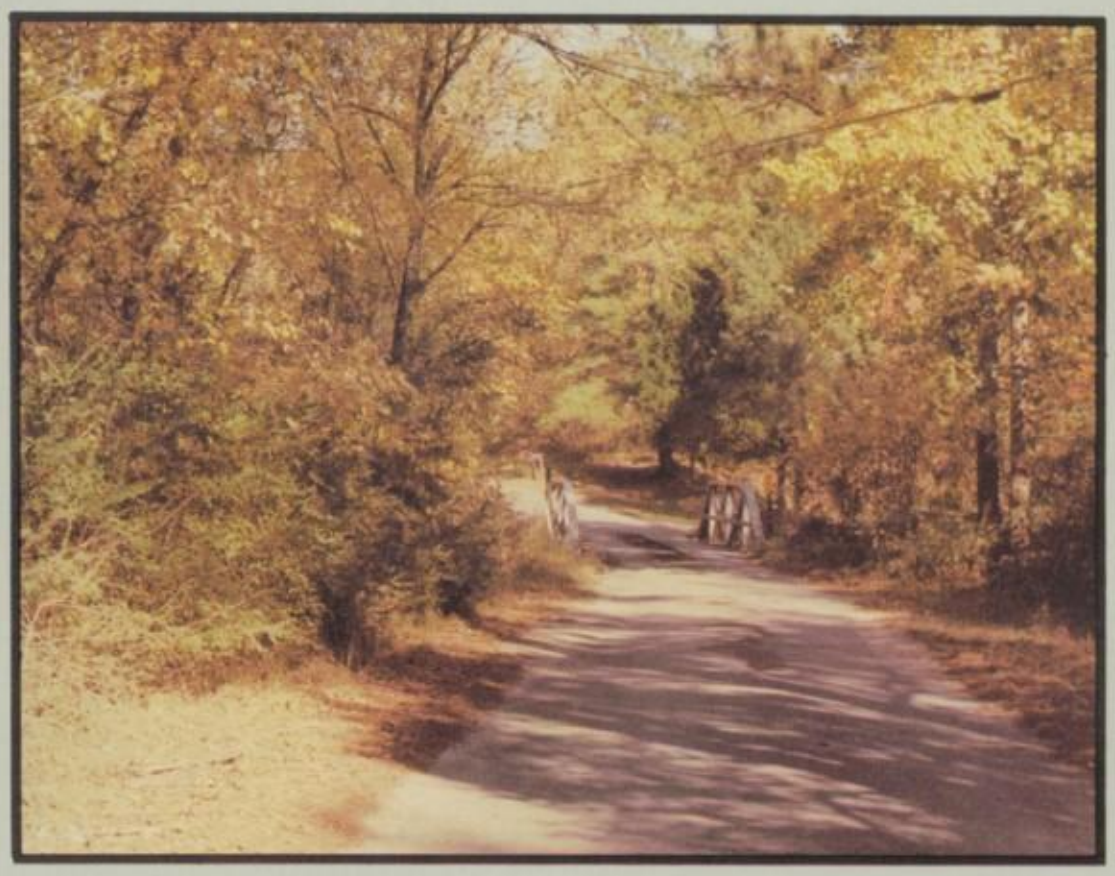
. . . And We're On Our Way.

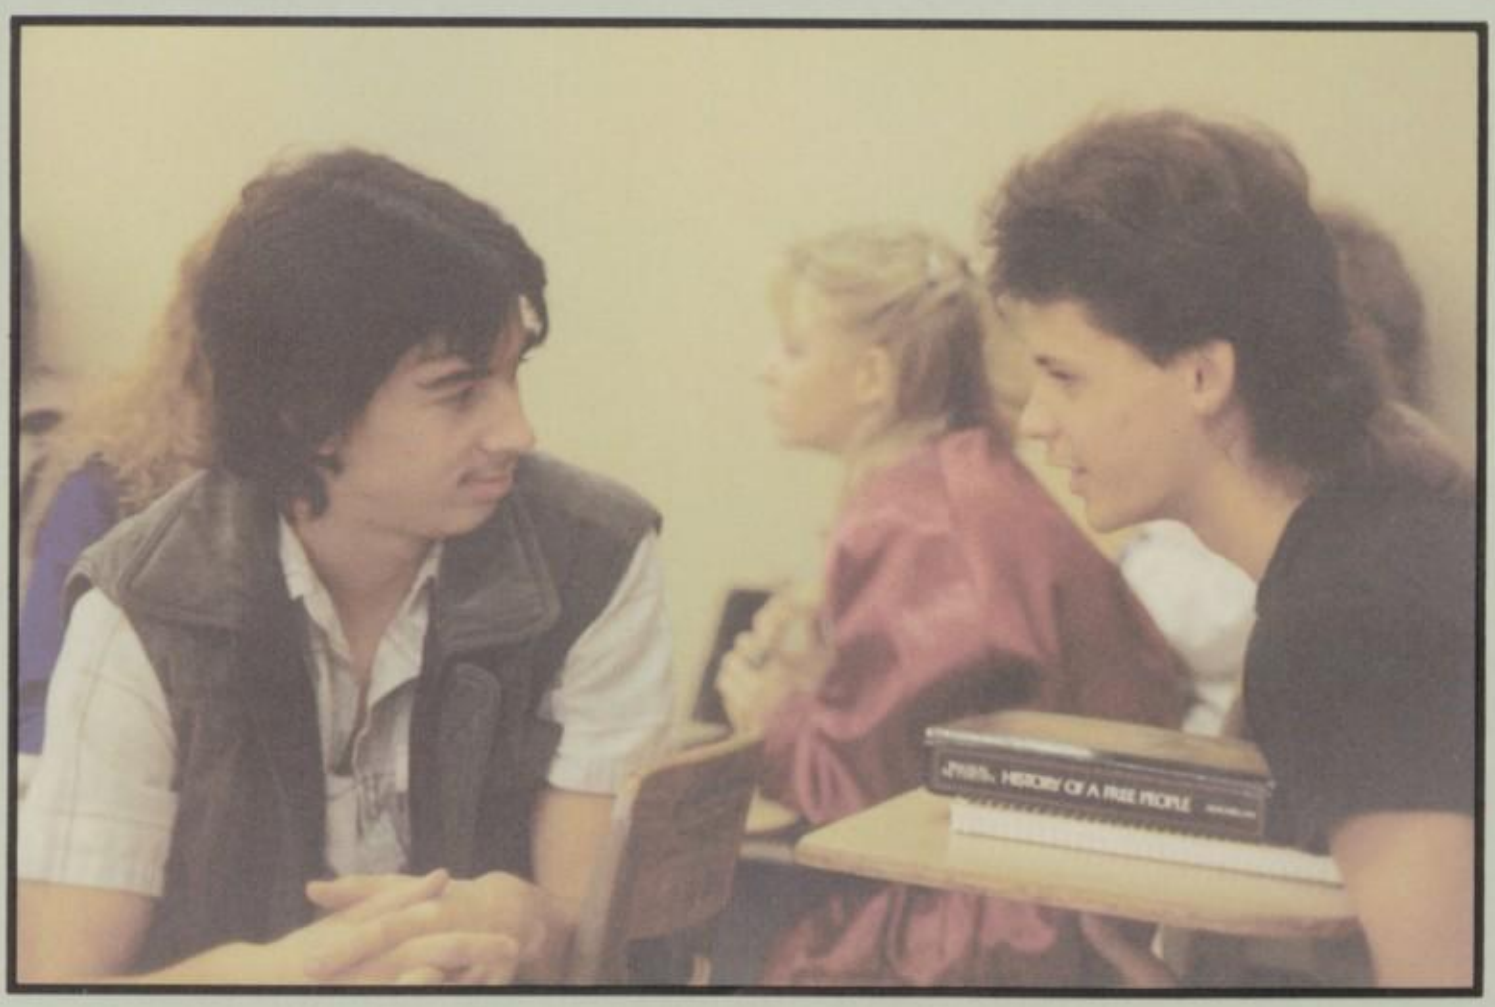












We've Only Just Begun.

Before The Rising Sun . . . We Fly,

Monica Bates, along with the other cheerleaders, is arousing more spirit by risking her life.

Kate Schmitz doesn't seem to be paying much attention to what James Moerls is saying to her.

Carmelle, Katherine and Christy smile with a new found friend.

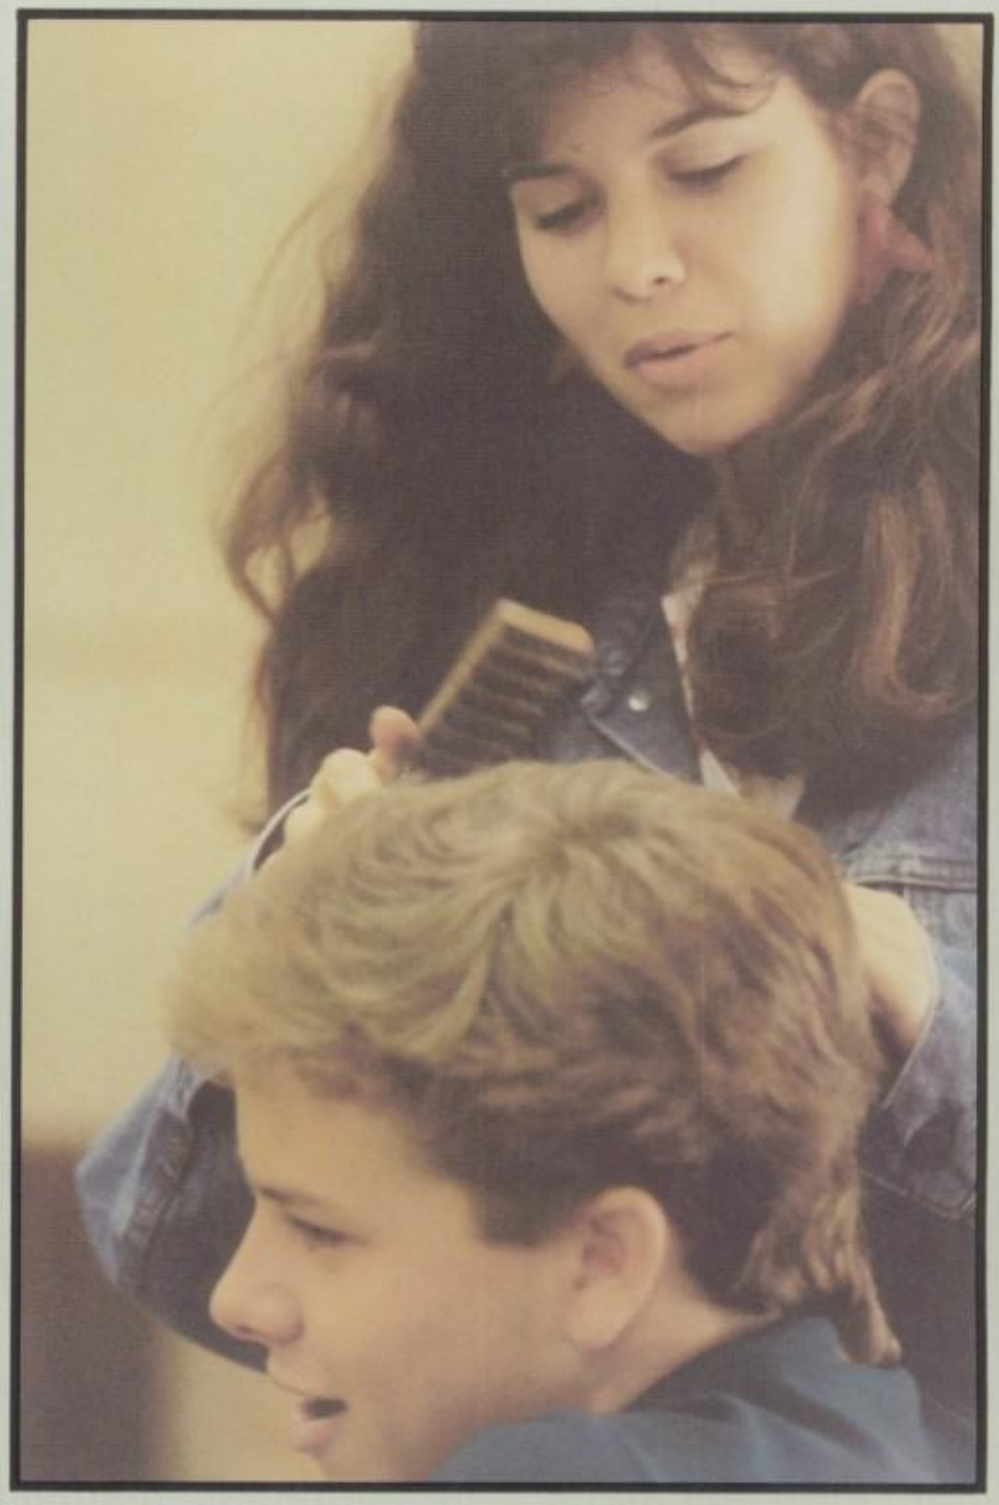
David Burnham says, "We'll Chris, you could say that."

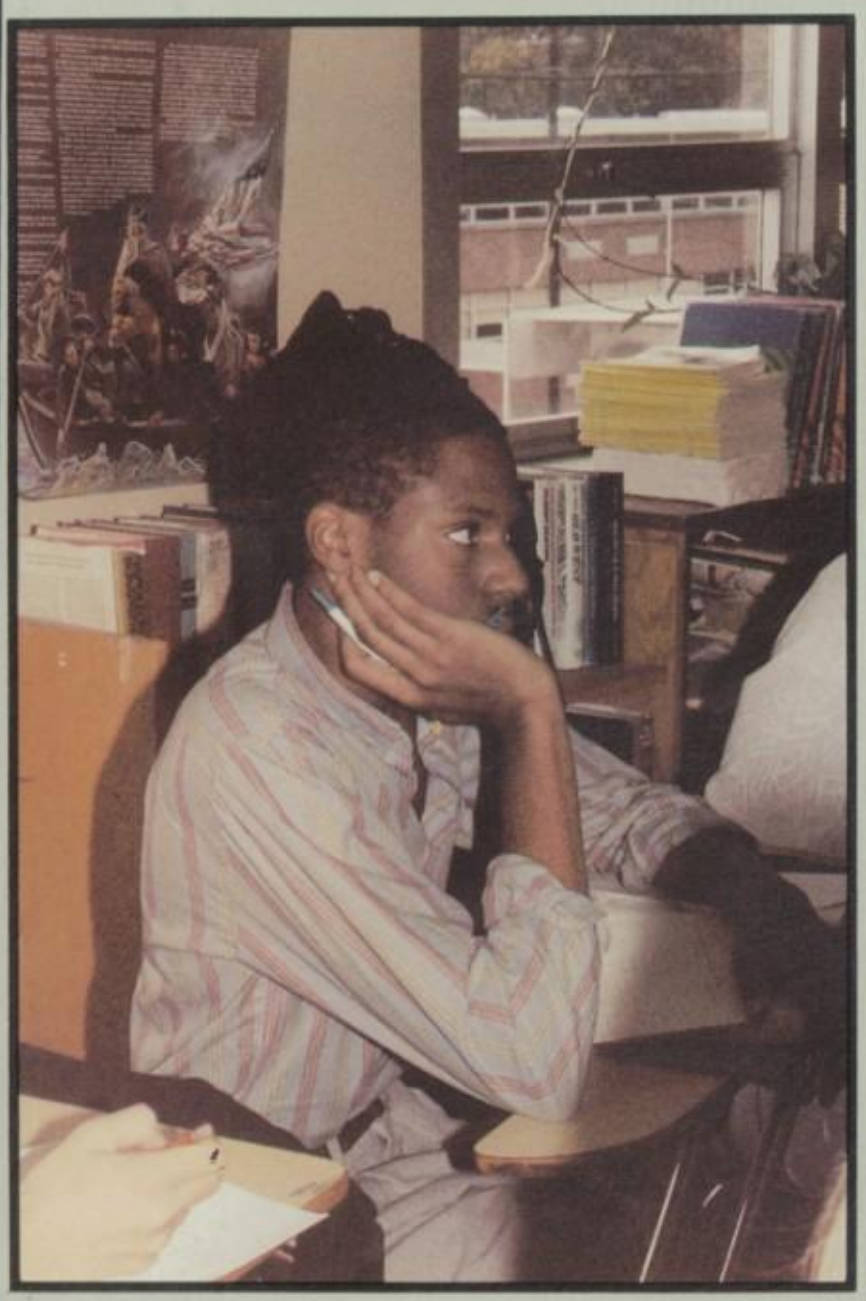
Looking at Mrs. Langley, Julie Winters thinks to herself, "You want me to do what?"

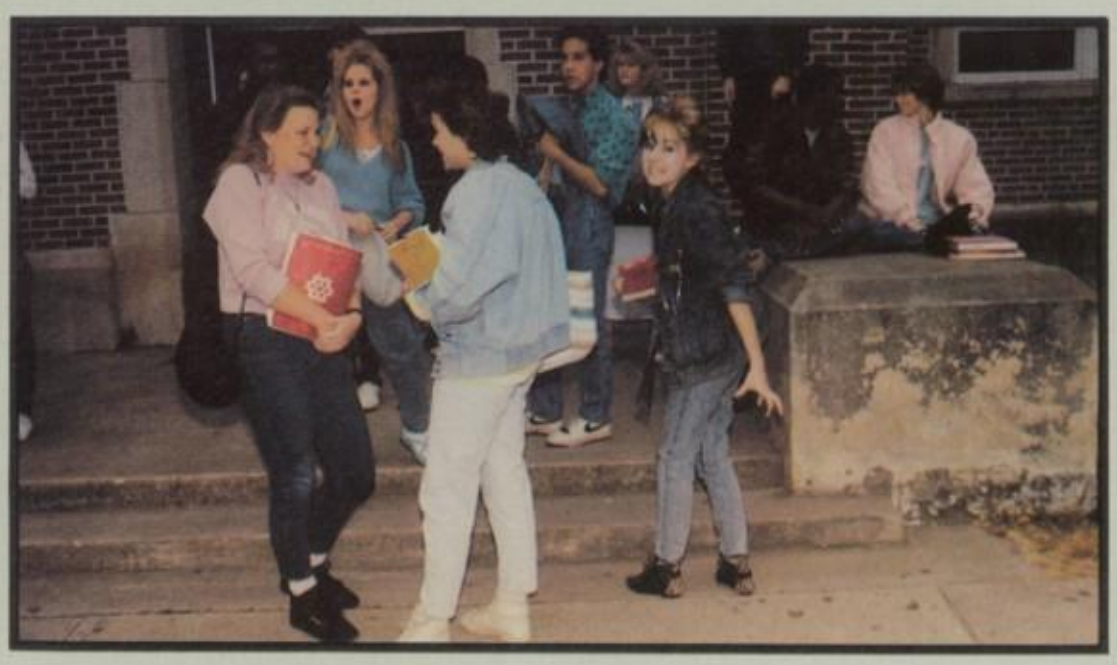
John Abernathy laughs as Mr. Boozer attempts to explain the classes' homework.

So Many Roads To Choose,

We Start Out Walking And . . .

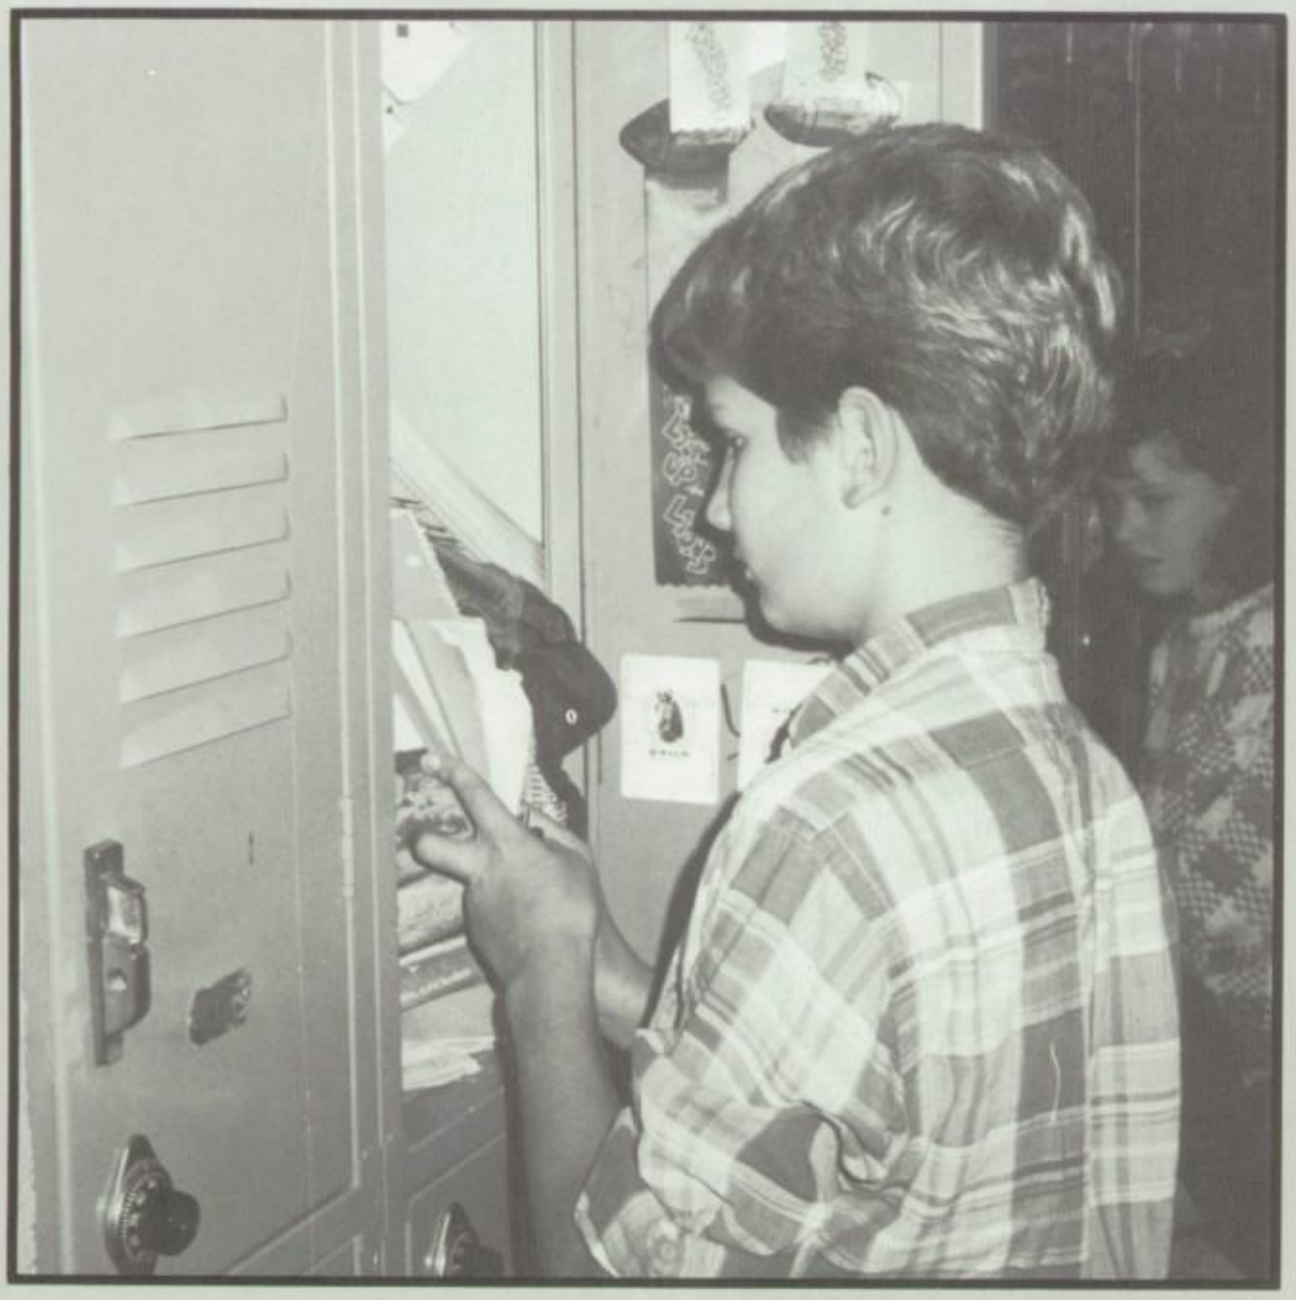






Learn To Run.

And, Yes, We've Just Begun.



Dion Glover must be desperate if he's having Deena Notar explain his typing to him.

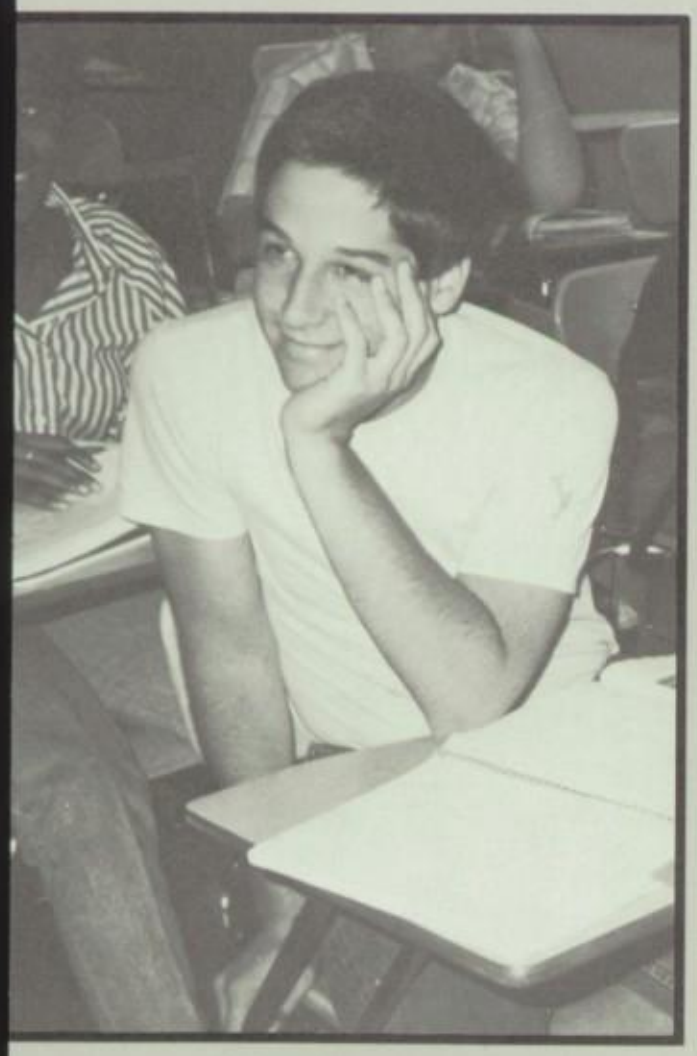
Brian Durdin is taking on a new image.

What kind of experiment would make Mike Contos and Angie Patterson smile like that?

Beware! Lashonda Harper and Coach Ray Hammett are a deadly combination when loose on the streets.



Jonathon Hammett practices sleeping with his eyes open.

Excitedly, Nancy Duncan asks, "Have you found another good page yet, Heather?"

Sharing Horizons That Are New To Us.

GET FIRED UP!

Pep Rallies are always fun at J.H.S. They present a good way to cheer and let your team know that you are behind them all the way. This year, the pep rallies have been great, due to the fact that we have been a lot more spirited than last year. Confetti, Junior and Senior yelling contests, skits, band performances, Two Bit competition between Junior High and Senior High, and last but certainly not least Coach Hammett's pep talks, were just some of the things that went on this year. All in all, the pep rallies were a great success.

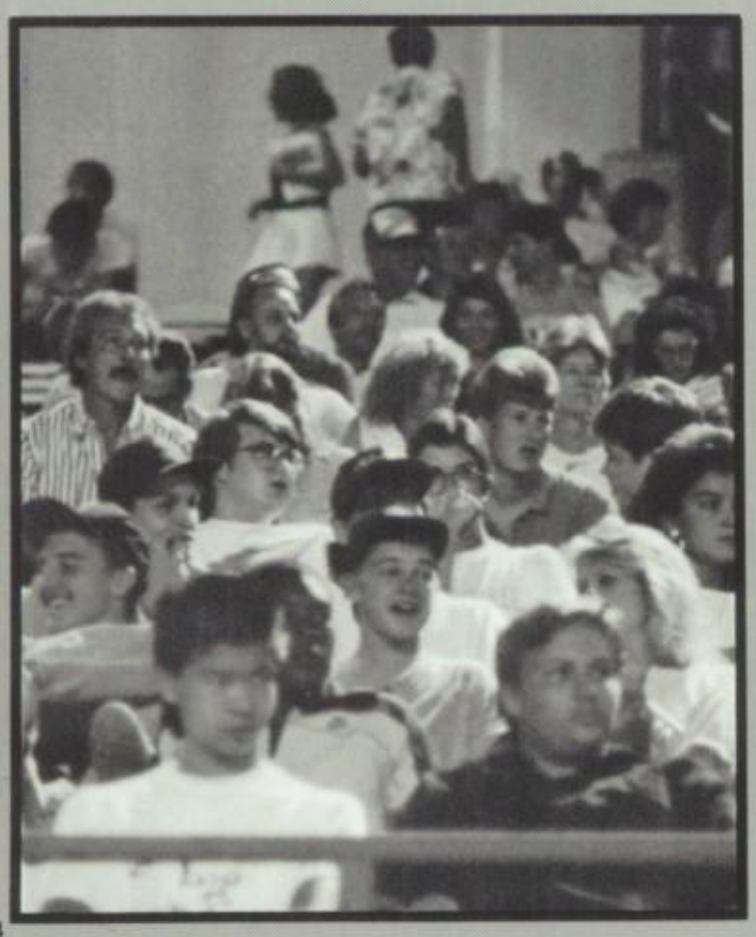
WHEN YOU'RE



It always seems the time flies by when you're having fun. For example, at the football game you're sitting with your friend. You're just talking and enjoying yourself. The next thing you know you turn around and the game is over. Or you're sitting up at McDonalds with all your friends. The next thing you know it is time for you to be home. These are just a couple of examples of how the time seems to fly by when you are having fun.

HAVING FUN!

HOMECOMING '87

Homecoming was enjoyed by just about everyone this year. Many people dressed up during the week for the spirit days. Building the floats was hard work but it was worth it in the end. Each night many water balloon fights took place near and at the houses where the floats were being built. The seniors won the float competition. After the game many attended the Homecoming Dance in the gym while others enjoyed eating out.

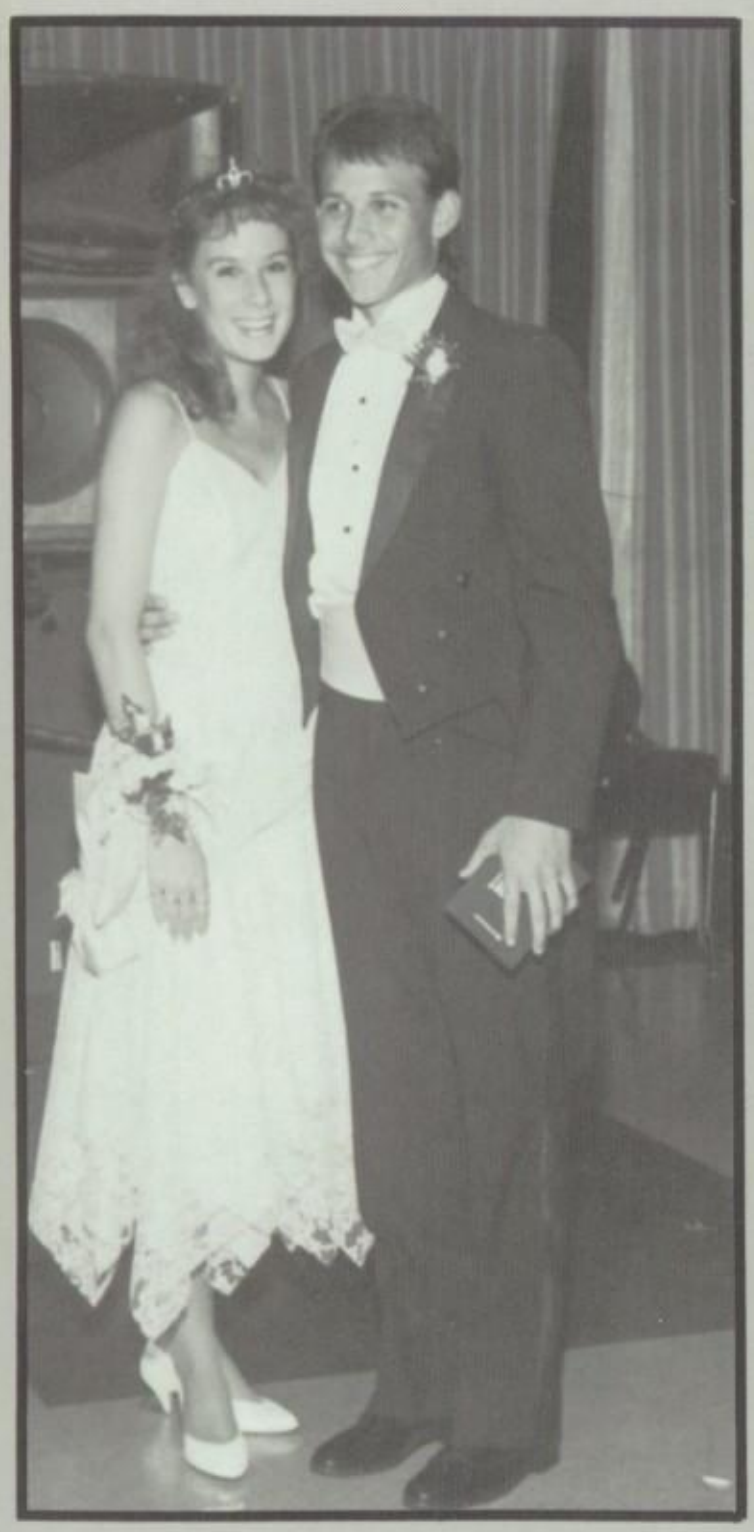
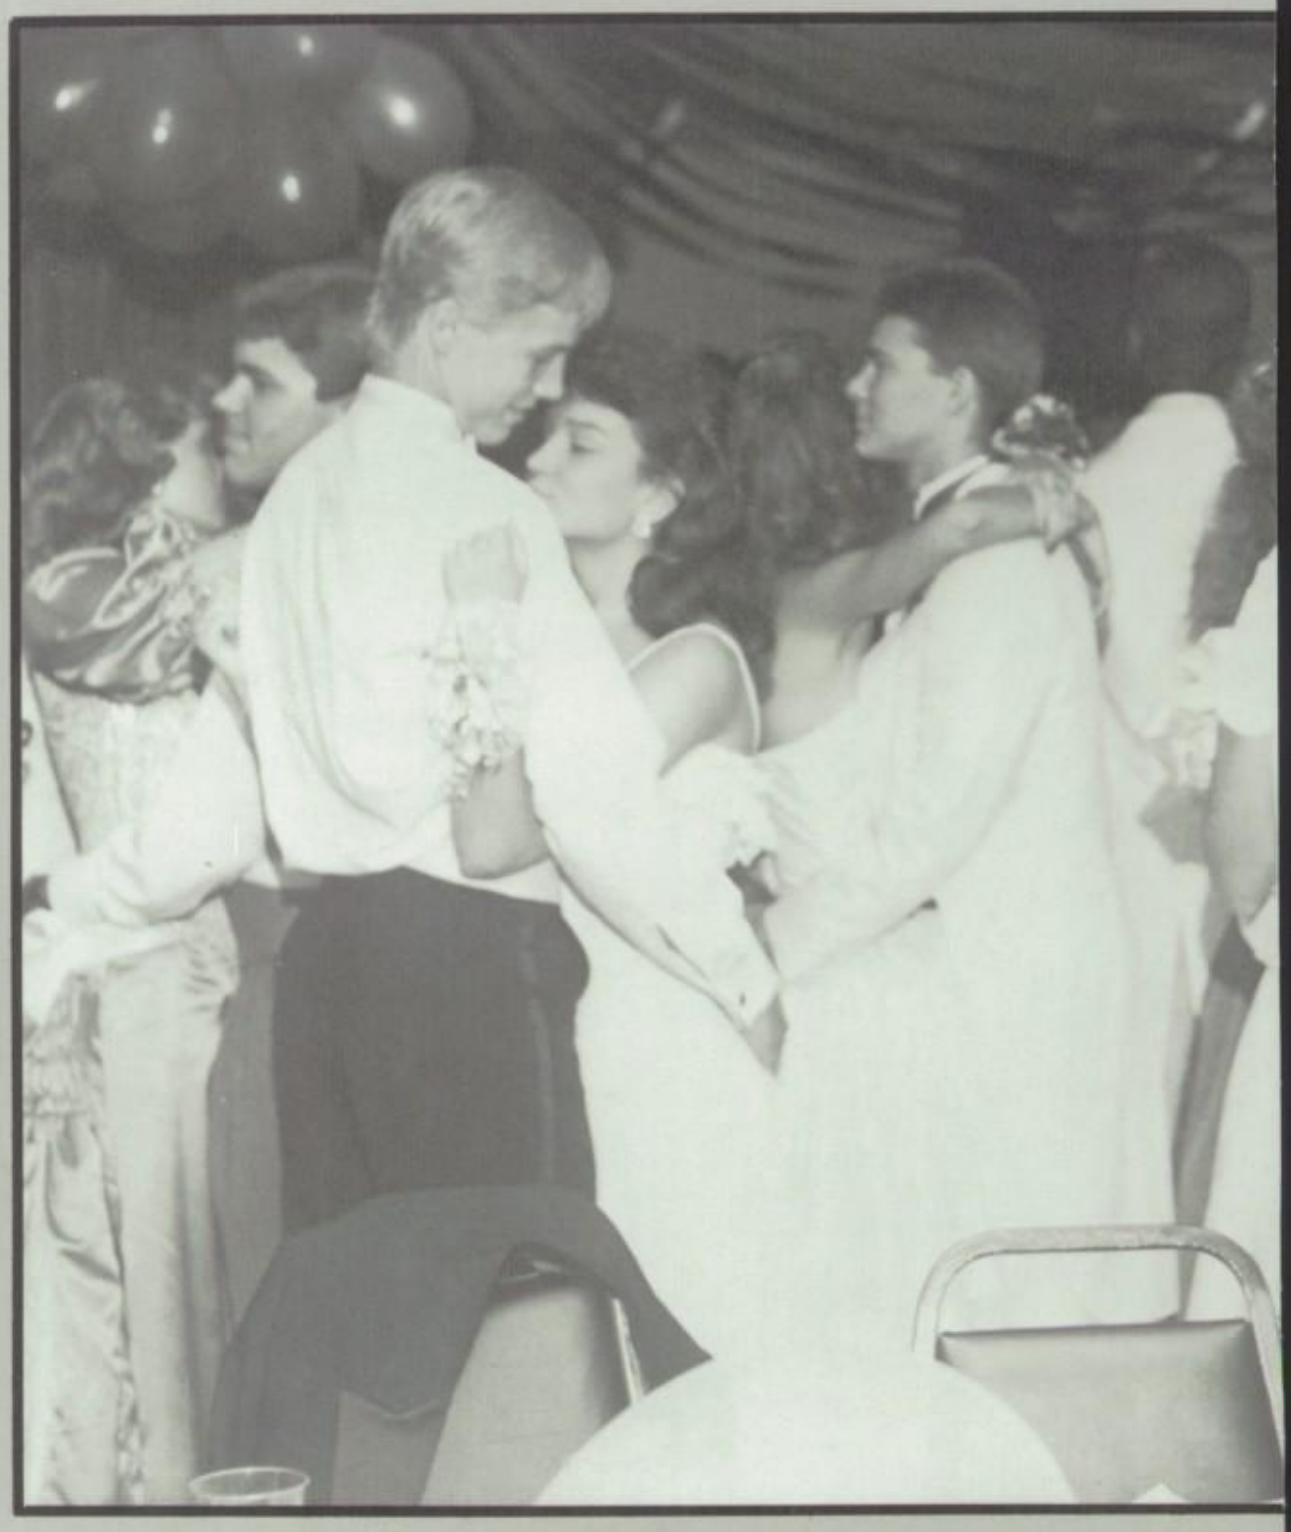
STAND BY ME





The 1987 Junior-Senior Prom was a fun-filled evening of dancing and laughing with friends. "Stand By Me" was the theme. The prom was held at the Carriage House Inn on May 16, 1987. The festively decorated dance floor was crowded with dancers all night, thanks to the great performances of the bands. Blind Vision and St. Germaine were the featured bands. Our DJ for the evening was Freddie C.

Kelly Hill was crowned queen and Dale McVeigh was awarded king of the 1987 Junior-Senior Prom.

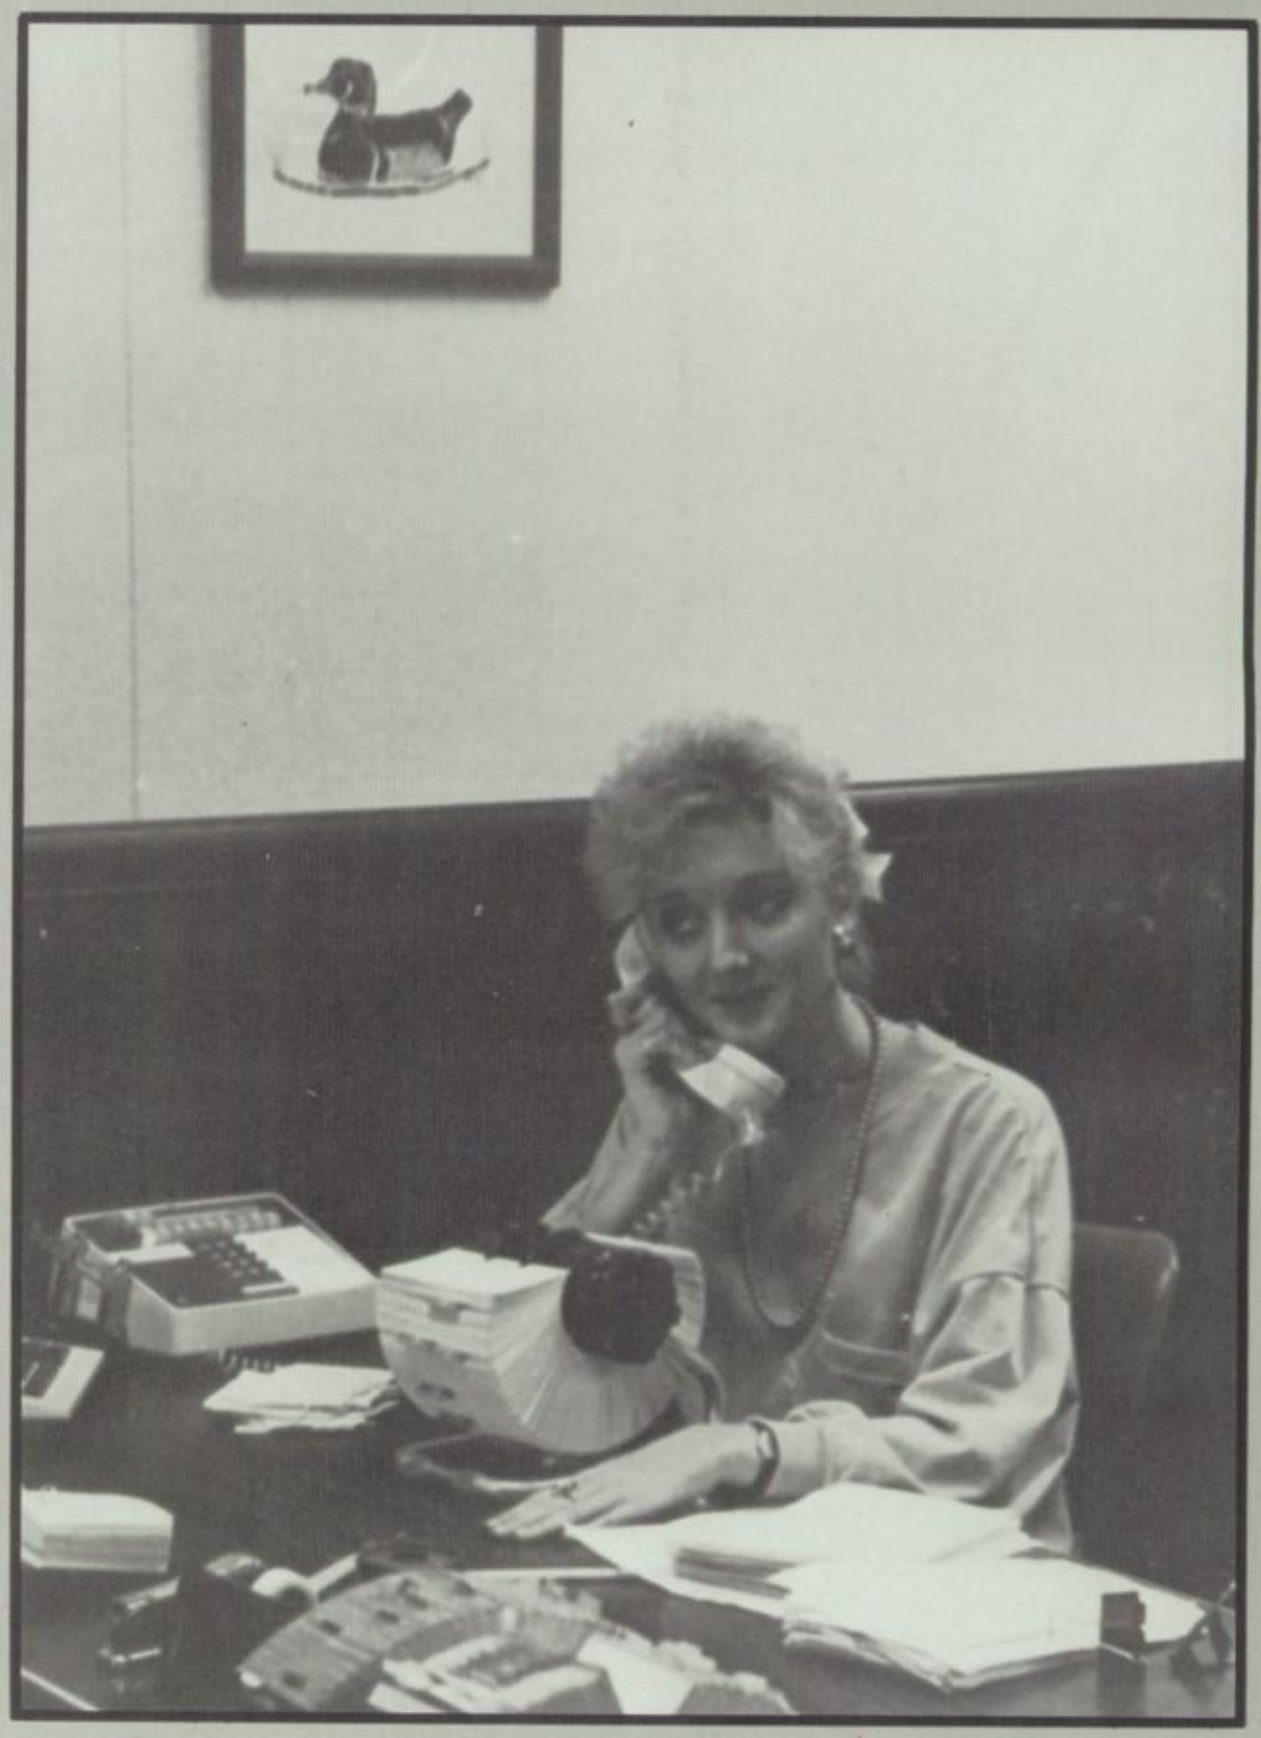
WORKING STUDENTS

Lisa James takes peoples money instead of waiting on tables.

Every year, many Jacksonville High School students work under the VICA program. These students are usually 11th and 12th graders who are able to drive. Students usually leave school at 12 or 1 o'clock each day. They work at restaurants, business offices, day-care centers, hospitals, and veterinary clinics.

Many students feel that the program is very helpful to them for their future as well as giving them the chance to earn some money for college, trade school, business school, or whatever their future occupation choice will be.

Jeff Maxwell cooks fish at Long John Silver's.



Nancy Sanford answers the phone at City Hall.

David Gray and Rodger Loftin show off their MacTonight accessories while taking orders at McDonalds.

Ashley Reaves puts the files into order at Jacksonville Hospital.

Kim Logan takes time out to read a book at her job at the Jacksonville Public Library.

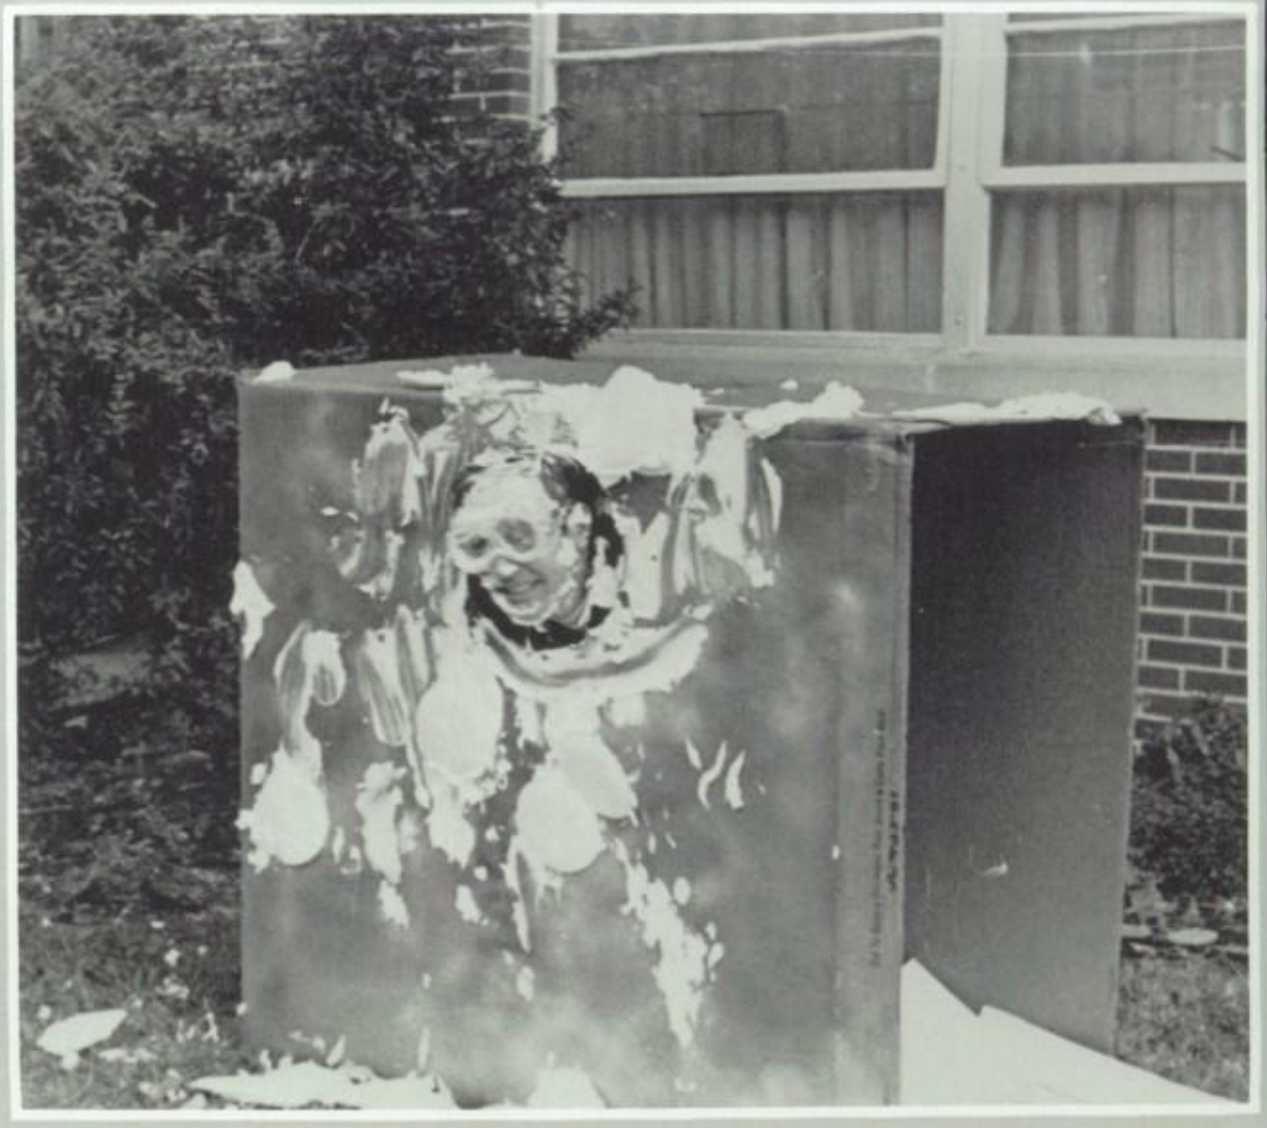
FALL FESTIVAL 1987

The Fall Festival was the first carnival to raise money at JHS. Sponsored by the Jr. National Honor Society, this carnival was a good way for all of the various clubs at JHS to gain a little profit. Some activities at the carnival consisted of a cake walk, a dunking booth, an egg toss, a marriage booth, a pie throw, and various food booths. Although cold weather did persist, there was a good turnout and everyone, including the adults, had fun.



Does it taste good, Mr. Pettit?

This exhibit attracted many students who wanted to get back at their favorite teachers.

Tim Ford asks Liz McCormick, "From now 'til the day we die?!

Many enjoyed this year's Fall Festival.

Much was learned from "The Anatomy Class."

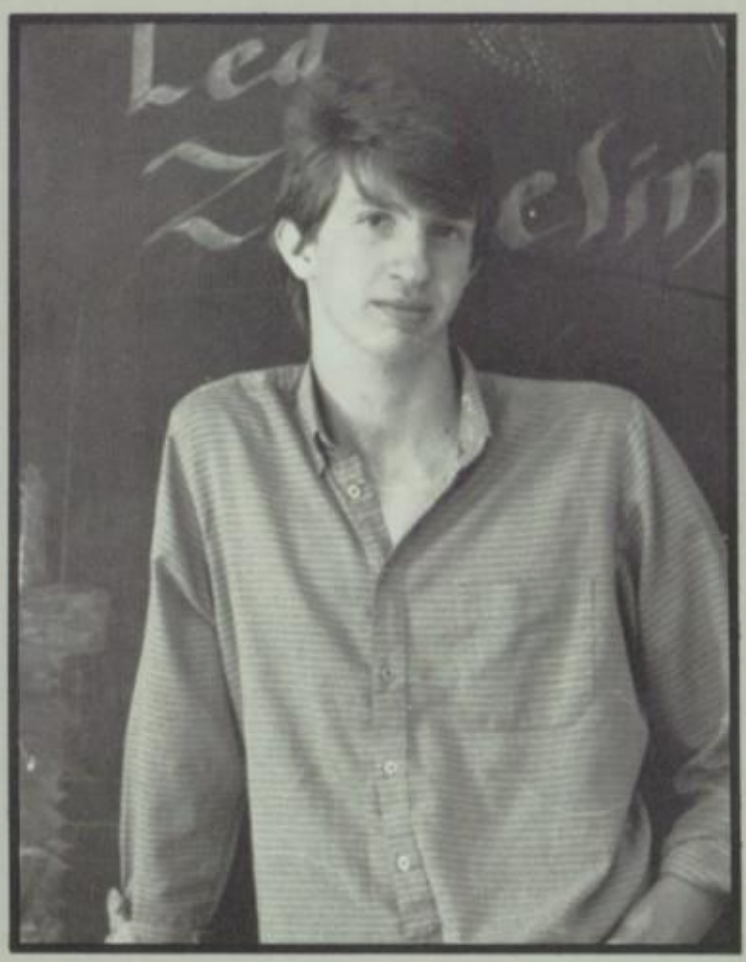
NEWS



WRAPPING IT UP!

The 1987-88 school year was a good one. Lots of memories were made that one may keep forever. Some of the memories might have been watching football, baseball, softball, and basketball games, pep rallies, the prom, the homecoming dance, building floats, getting report cards, being with friends, and much more. One will never be around these people or these places again in their lives. Maybe that is what makes high school life so unusual and special. The 1987-88 school year, was, indeed, just that.

Isn't that special?

JR. MISS J.H.S.

On November 14, 1987, the Jr. Miss JHS Pageant was held in the Jacksonville High School Auditorium. The pageant was sponsored by the German Club and the Jacksonville F.F.A. Chapter. Sixty-one contestants participated in the pageant. John Peppers, Senior High Student Council president, was the emcee. The judges and musicians were introduced before the parade of contestants. Following the parade of contestants, the judges began the individualized judging. Once this judging was completed, there was an intermission. The audience was entertained by the F.F.A. quartet who sang a selection of gospel songs. After the intermission, the finalists were announced. Due to a tie, there were eleven contestants who qualified for the final judging. They were: Allison Abercrombie, Kim Ellis, Cournay Ford, Cindi Gaddy, Tonya Hubbard, melissa Landers, Whitney Parris, Kim Robinson, Stacy Rollins, Jennifer Tompkins, and Summer Welch. Each of these eleven contestants were individually judged. After a short break, the judges announced the winners: Miss Congeniality — Samantha Holland; Fourth Alternate — Jennifer Tompkins; Third Alternate — Courtnay Ford; Second Alternate — Melissa Landers; First Alternate — Summer Welch. The 1987 Jr. Miss JHS was Whitney Parris.

HOMECOMING PARADE 1987-'88

On Friday, October 23, 1987, the Homecoming parade proceeded down Pelham Road. This annual parade consisted of each grade's floats, the Homecoming attendants, and various cars. The Jacksonville High School Band started off the parade, providing the music. The attendants rode in their respective cars in increasing class order, ending with the Homecoming King and Senior attendants. People of all ages came to watch. The parade came to an end with a trail of cars and trucks representing the traditional Skoal Train and Crazy Train.

The Senior float took first place.

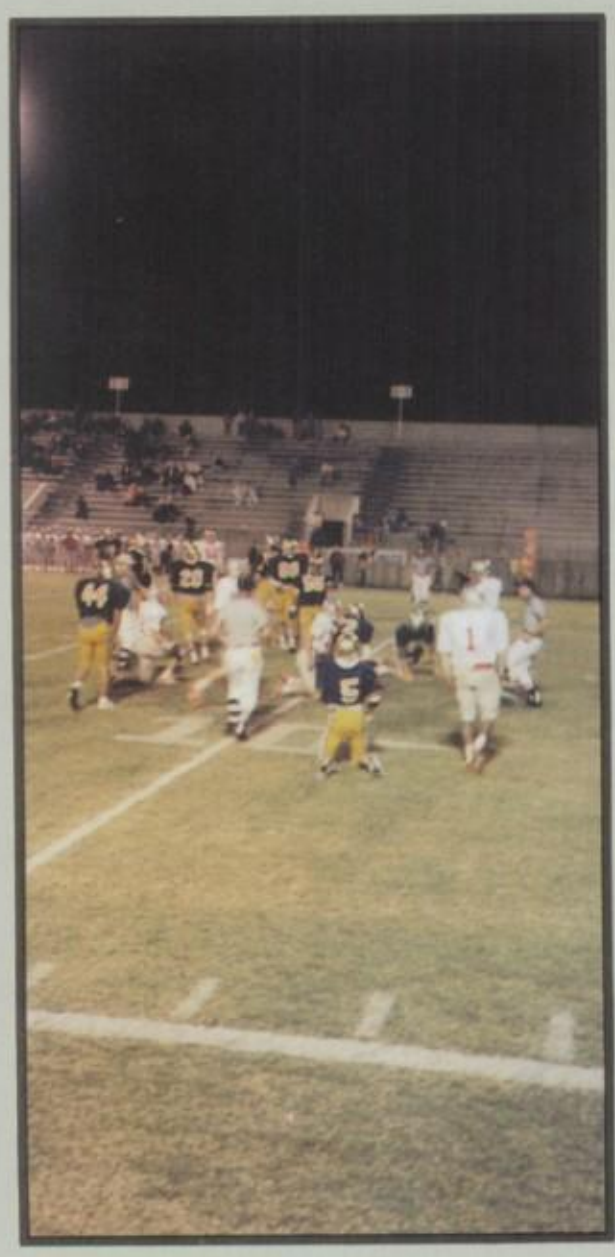
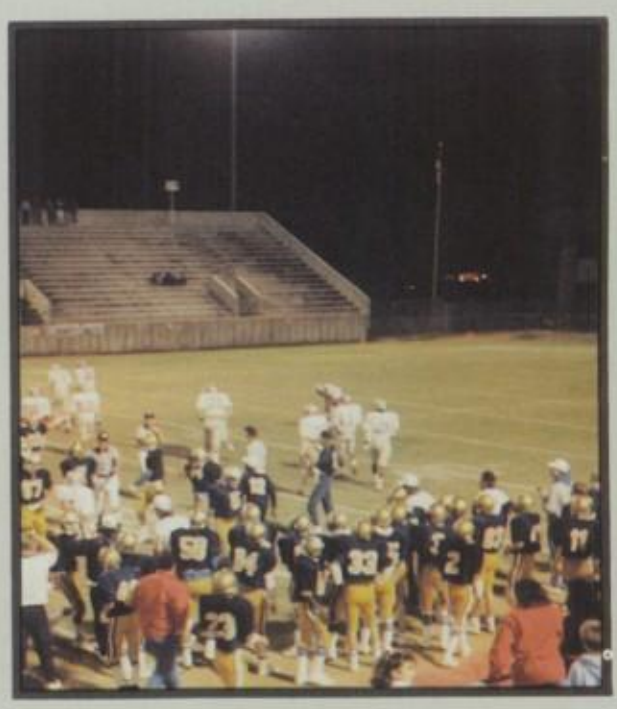
EAGLES vs. WILDCATS





HOMECOMING 1987

Although the final score may not have indicated it, the Jacksonville Eagles played one of their better games on Homecoming night. The first half was marred by Jacksonville turnovers, but the Eagles kept the Wildcats within range, allowing them only two touchdowns. The third quarter was owned by Jacksonville as they stopped a Saks drive and took over on their own 20-yard line. An 80-yard drive was capped when Brenton Boozer connected with Chris Chapman for a touchdown. In the fourth quarter, the Saks Wildcats slipped from the Eagles mighty claws and scored two more touchdowns making the final score 28-7.

This season was up and down for the Junior High Golden Eagles and their Coach Rusty Burroughs. They ended the season with a record of 3-5. This record didn't show the teamwork, character, and determination that was evident during the year. The positive attitude that is so important to a team was there also. In a few years, this will be a good team with all of the characteristics above plus the experience and knowledge of the game that will allow them to be the best. Good Luck in "88" Eagles!

The Golden Eagle Golf Team enjoyed another successful season in 1987. They were sectional champions for the second consecutive year and once again participated in the state tournament in Gulf Shores. Prospects for the 1988 season appear excellent since only one senior was lost from the 1987 team.

SPRING SPORTS 1987
SUMMING IT UP!

BASEBALL

The 1987 Jacksonville High School Varsity Baseball Team had an outstanding year. With a record of 25-5, they won many tournaments and championships. Under the leadership of Coach Rusty Burroughs, they won the Wendy's Classic Tournament in Etowah, the County Championship, and the Area Championship. They also made it to the Quarter Finals of the State Play-offs. Paul Glass, Bo Loftin, and Jonathon Tompkins made the All-County Team. At State Competition, Bo Loftin was selected as the Gatorade Most Valuable Player. Because of their excellent record, the 1987 Jacksonville Varsity Baseball Team will be hard to beat in the future.

SOFTBALL

The Jacksonville High School Varsity Softball Team finished its season with a record of 1-20. However, this figure is somewhat misleading. This year's team was very different from last year's team. They were younger, they had never played together before, and they were inconsistant at times. Most people don't always look behind the cover however. This team played at least 10 games in which they lost by 3 or less points. Coach Terry Gosdin believes that if they had won these games their season would have been more successful. The Lady Eagles worked on this problem by attending and playing in the Piedmont Summer League. This program proved to be beneficial to all of the girls as well as a new learning experience. The Lady Eagles are lucky in the fact that they only lost 1 player, Senior Alison Butler. This means that most of the old players will be back next season to improve with experience, hard work, consistancy, and above all, the will to win.

GOLF

It was another great season for the young golf team at Jacksonville High School. In its 2 year existence, golf has become the most successful sport at Jacksonville. This past year, the golf team, composed of mainly Juniors and Sophomores took on the task of defending their Area Title that they were crowned in their first year. They won the Area Championship for the second year straight and finished a successful season off with a trip to the State Golf Tournament in Gulf Shores, Alabama. The team ended their regular season with an 11 and 3 record, one loss coming from the defending State Champion, Central of Tuscaloosa. Being composed mainly of Juniors and Sophomores last year, the golf team should continue their winning in the 1988 season.

The Ad Annos staff put many hours of hard work into this year's edition of the annual. Mr. Klaus Duncan is our sponsor and has been for the last few years. This yearbook would not be possible without the efforts of our editor, Kate Schmitz. She has taken a lot of her time and energy to make the 1987-88 Ad Annos a success. We hope that the students and faculty of J.H.S. enjoy it.

Putting together an annual is a time consuming job. Such a job requires someone who is hardworking and conscientious, as all of the section editors are. These editors are each responsible for their own section. They contribute a lot to the planning and preparation of the yearbook, and their work is greatly appreciated.

Students Against Driving Drunk is a nationwide program. The chapter at Jacksonville High School was started in 1985. So far the club has had active participation by students in the grades 9-12. The club's purpose is to try to decrease the number of deaths caused by drunk drivers. There has been a decline in DUI deaths since the organization started. The club's slogan is: "Friends Don't Let Friends Drive Drunk."

Teen Involvement is an organization made up of Juniors and Seniors. Each student must maintain an A-B average throughout the school year. They aim to teach younger children about the dangers of drug and alcohol use. This year the Teen Involvement program visited 2 area schools, Jacksonville Elementary School and Fort McClellan Elementary School. Approximately 550 fifth and sixth graders benefit from this program.

The coordinators for the Teen Involvement program are Susan Hay and Debra Neal. Both of these girls are Seniors. Each are responsible for organizing the visits to the elementary schools. The entire program is overseen by Mrs. Sue Jones.

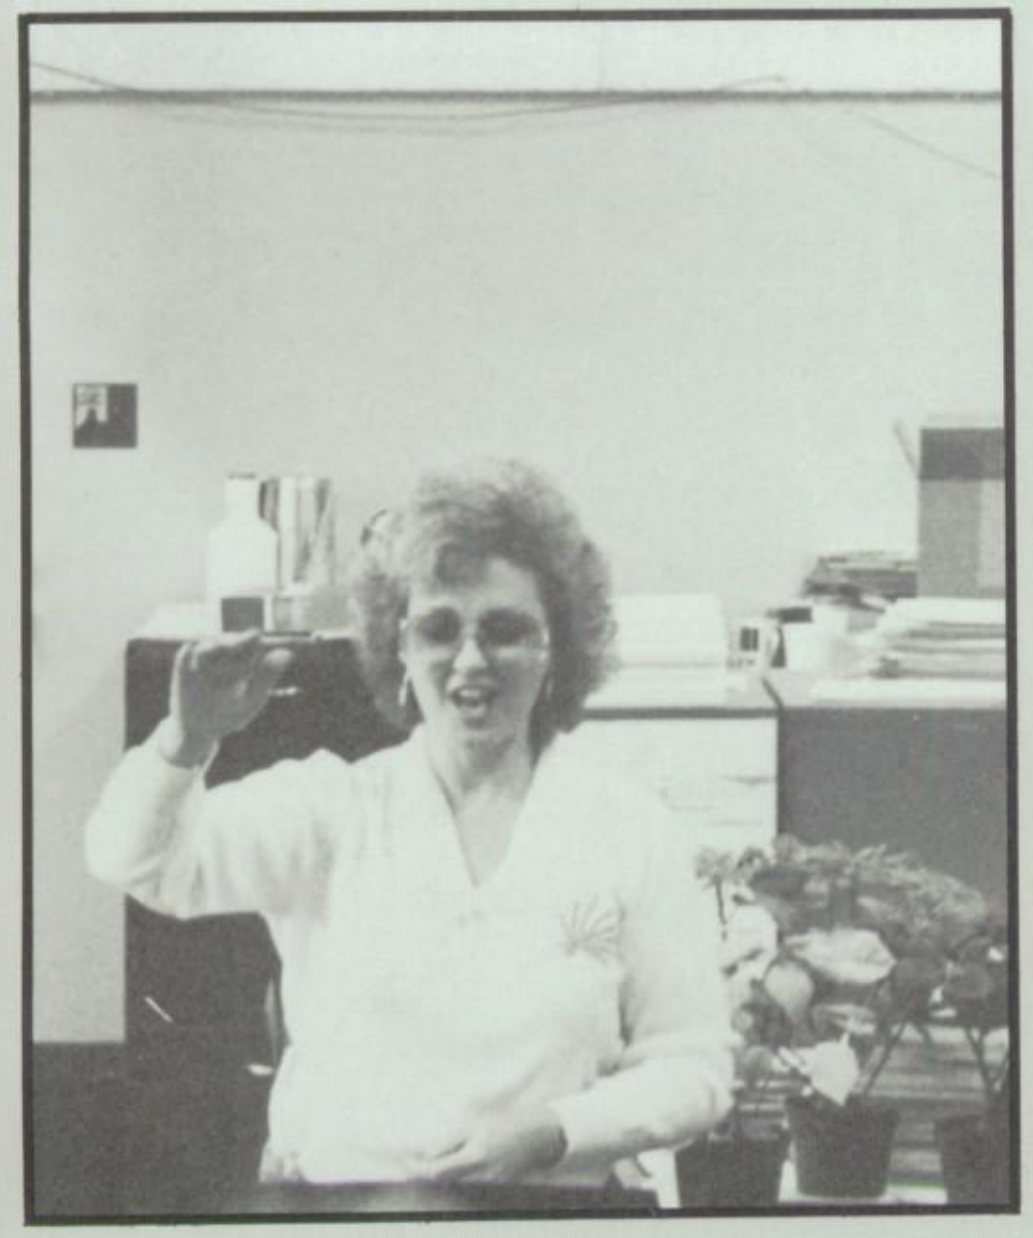
CHOIR DIRECTORS

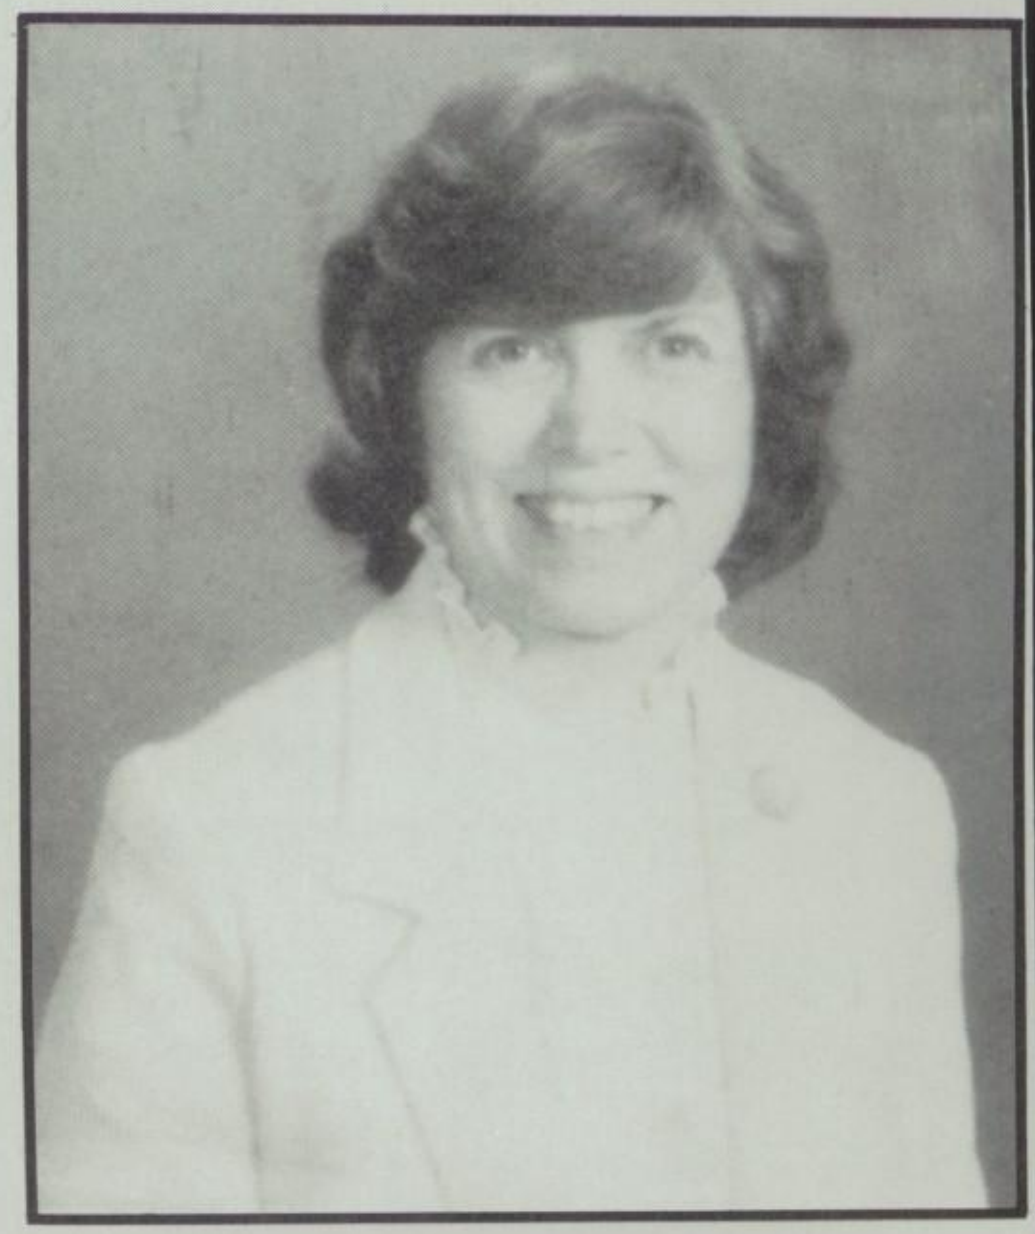


Mrs. Betty Jeanne Dobbins

Mrs. Betty Jeanne Dobbins has directed the Jacksonville High School choirs for many years. Through these years she has been very successful. Each year, the choirs perform in the District Festival. Under her direction, most if not all of the choirs go on to perform in the State Festival. Mrs. Dobbins is admited by many other choral directors in the state. This year, Mrs. Dobbins gave up all but one of her choirs, Senior Mixed, in order to expand her teching career. She has now joined the English faculty at JHS.

Mrs. Beverly Attinger

For many years, Mrs. Beverly Attinger has accompannied the Jacksonville High School choirs in fall and spring concerts, District Festival, and State Festival. This year she has made a transition from accompanist to director. The Treblites, Junior High Chorus, and the Barbershop are under her direction. The Jacksonville High School choirs look forward to working with her.



SENIOR MIXED

The Senior Mixed Choir consists of young men and women ranging from ninth to twelfth grade. This choir is very skilled in choral music performance. This choir has received Superior ratings in District, State, and Regional Festivals. The Senior Mixed Choir has also performed for the Elementary School and the High School, and at several community functions. This choir is very enjoyable to listen to because of it's advanced musical talent. The Senior Mixed Choir is under the direction of Mrs. Betty Jeanne Dobbins.

TREBLITES

The Treblites consists of girls are in the ninth, tenth, eleventh, and twlefth grade. This choir is considerable smaller that the other choirs. The Treblites perform in the District Festival, receive Superior ratings, and go on to State Festival. The girls that make up this choir are eligible to audition for All-State Chorus, which is a great honor if one makes it. The Treblites are under the direction of Mrs. Beverly Attinger.

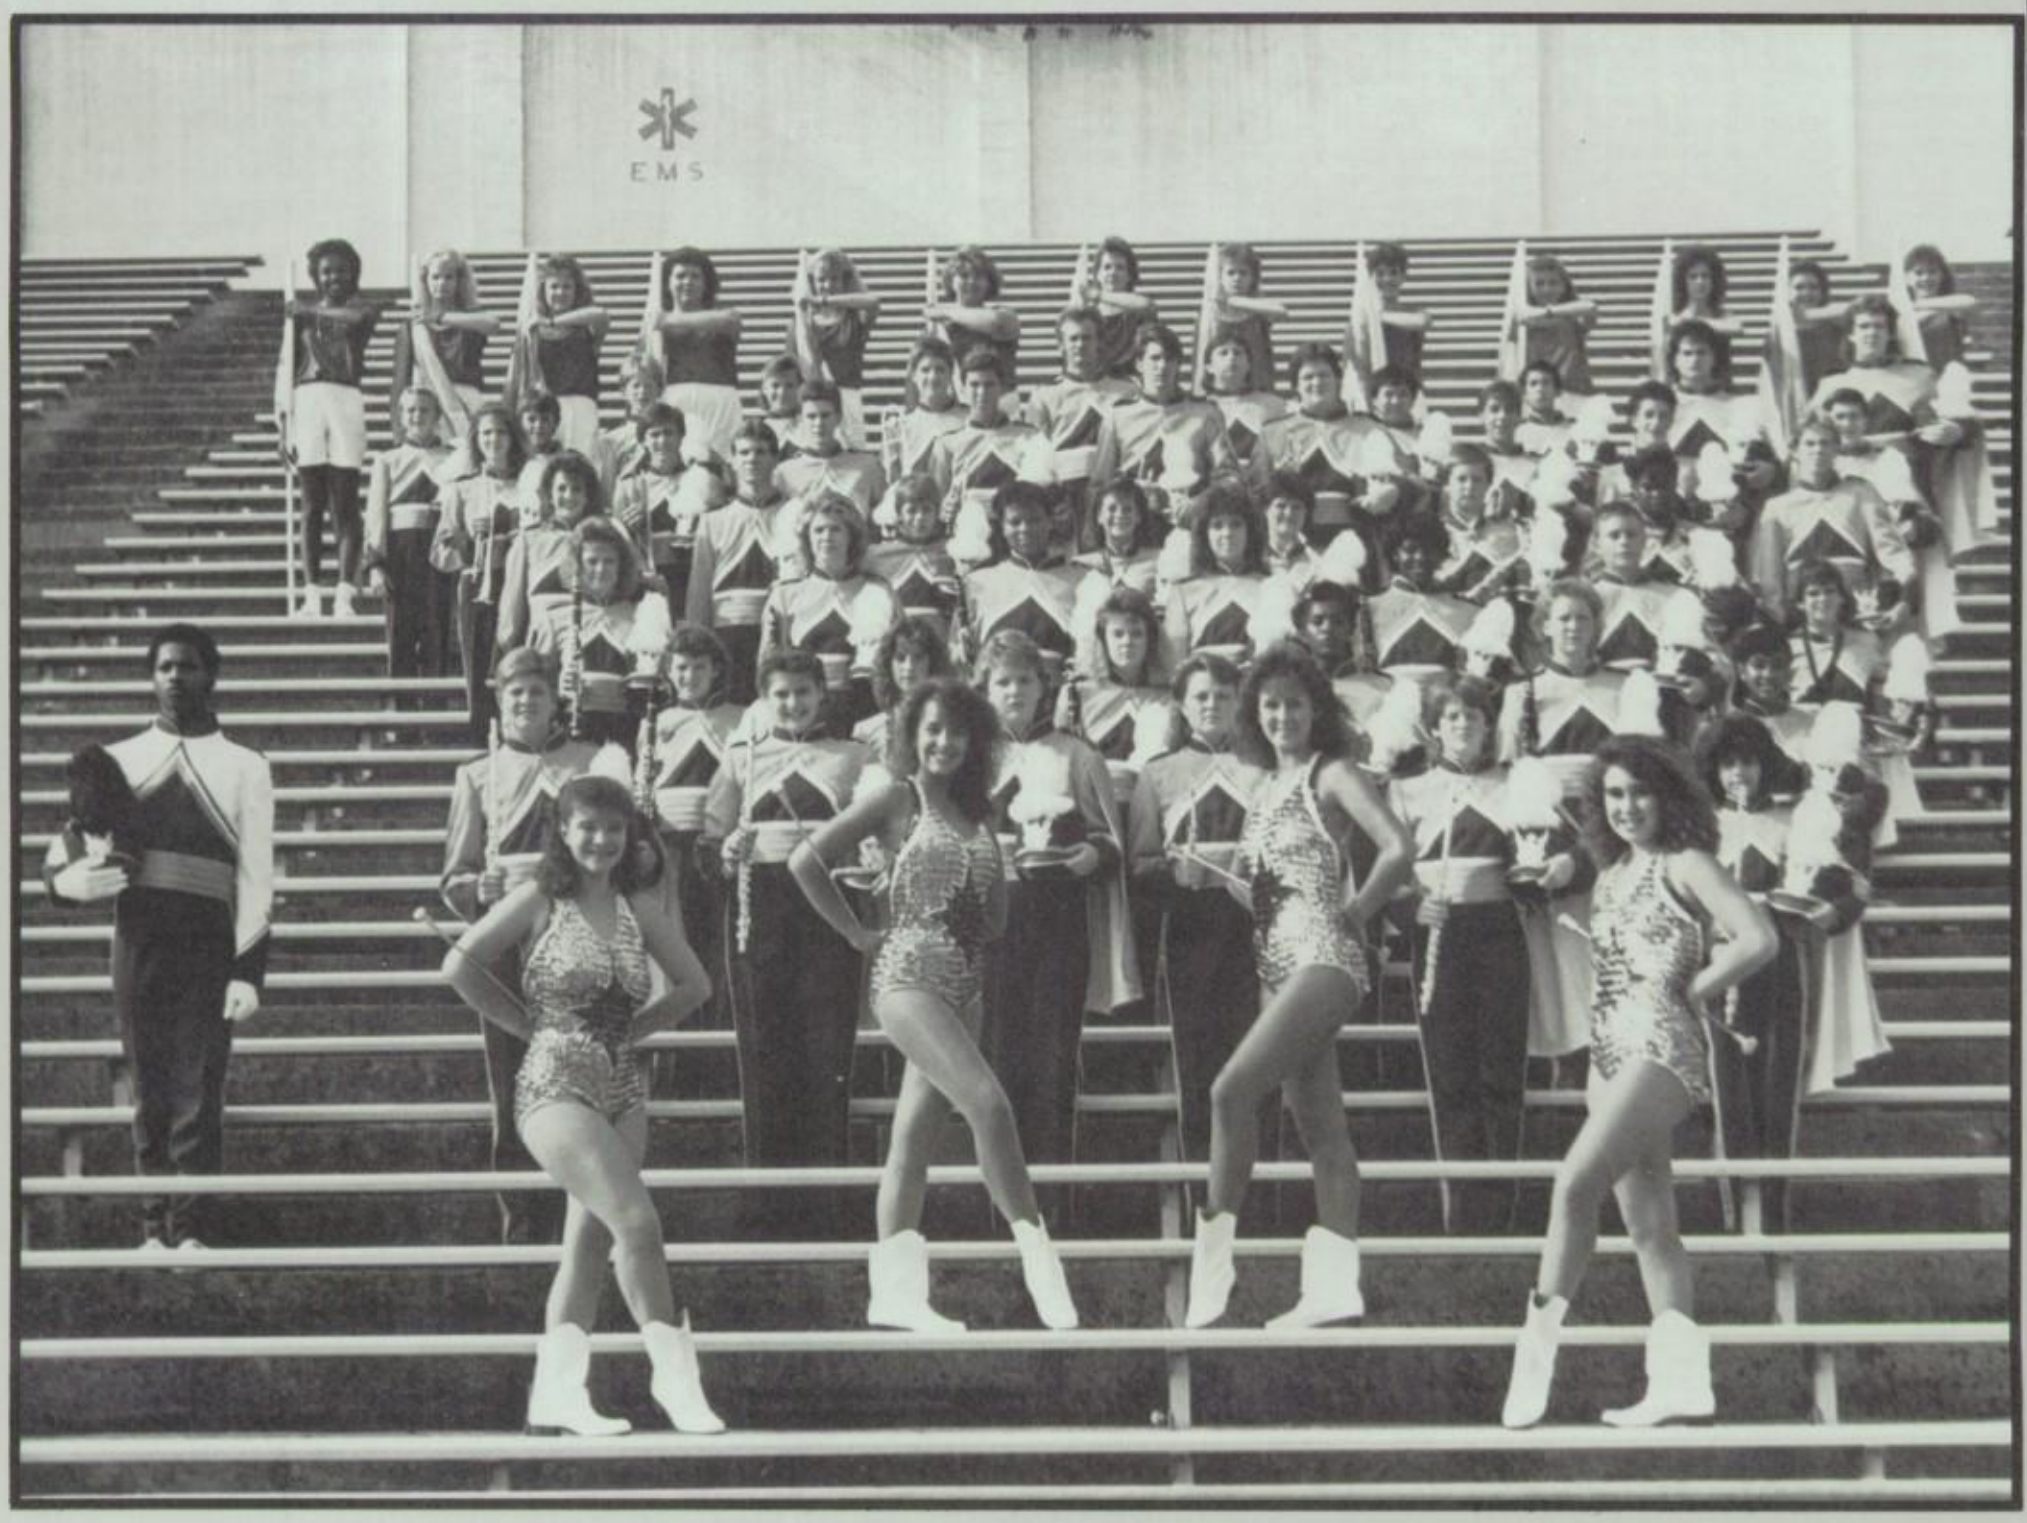
BARBERSHOP

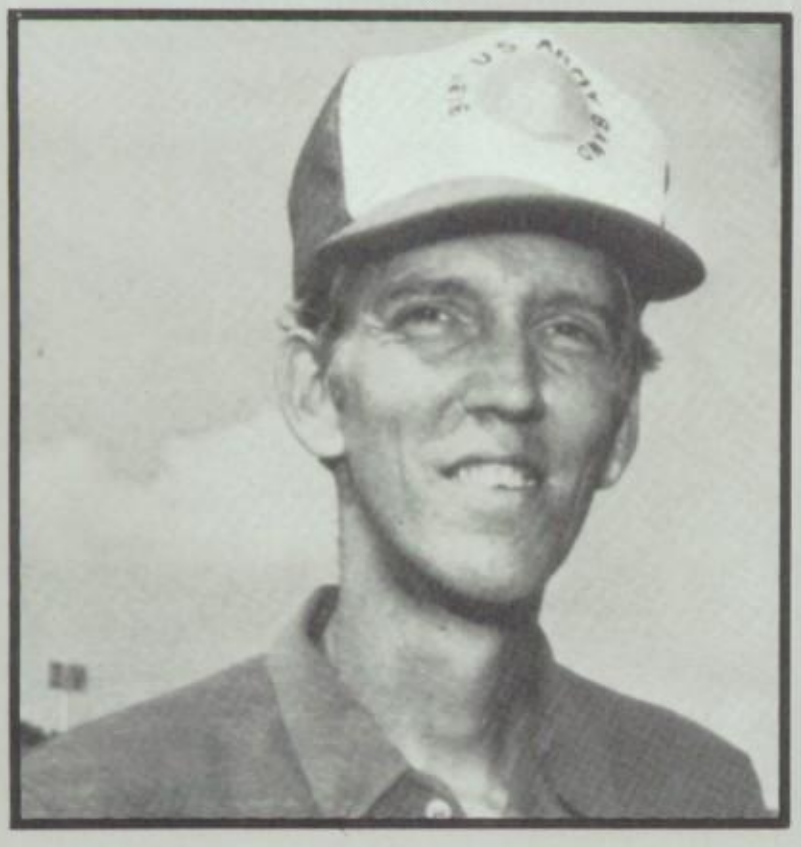
Jacksonville High School is the only school in Alabama to offer Barbershop Chorus as part of the curriculum. This chorus consists of young men from grade seven to grade twelve. The chorus has gone to District Festival and received excellent ratings, and moved on to State Festival. This choir is under the direction of Mrs. Beverly Attinger.

JUNIOR CHORUS

For 17 consecutive years, the Jacksonville Junior Choir has received Superior ratings at the District Festival at JSU and has gone to to State Festival to receive excellent ratings as well. In years past, this choir has represented our Choral Program at JHS well. The Junior Choir consists mainly of seventh and eighth grade girls who enjoy music and want to learn more about it. This is the largest of the four choirs at JHS. The Junior Choir is under the direction of Mrs. Beverly Attinger.

J.H.S. MARCHING BAND





The 1987-1988 Jacksonville High School Golden Eagles Marching Band opened their season halftime shows with South-American style selections chosen by their director, Homer Smith. This year, Dion Glover won the job of Drum Major with Kelli Smith as Assistant Drum Major. In addition to these changes, Jacksonville High School saw two new majorettes join the line. They were Amanda Anderson and Stacy Robershaw. The Jacksonville High School Golden Eagles Marching Band appears to have a promising future.

DEDICATION

Gene Rhodes, through his 11 years at Jacksonville High School, has proven to be a very special teacher and friend. He is special because he takes time to listen. He's special because he cares enough to offer to students sound advice and counsel. He is special because his interest is not a passing movement, but a commitment to see that problems are solved and all is well.

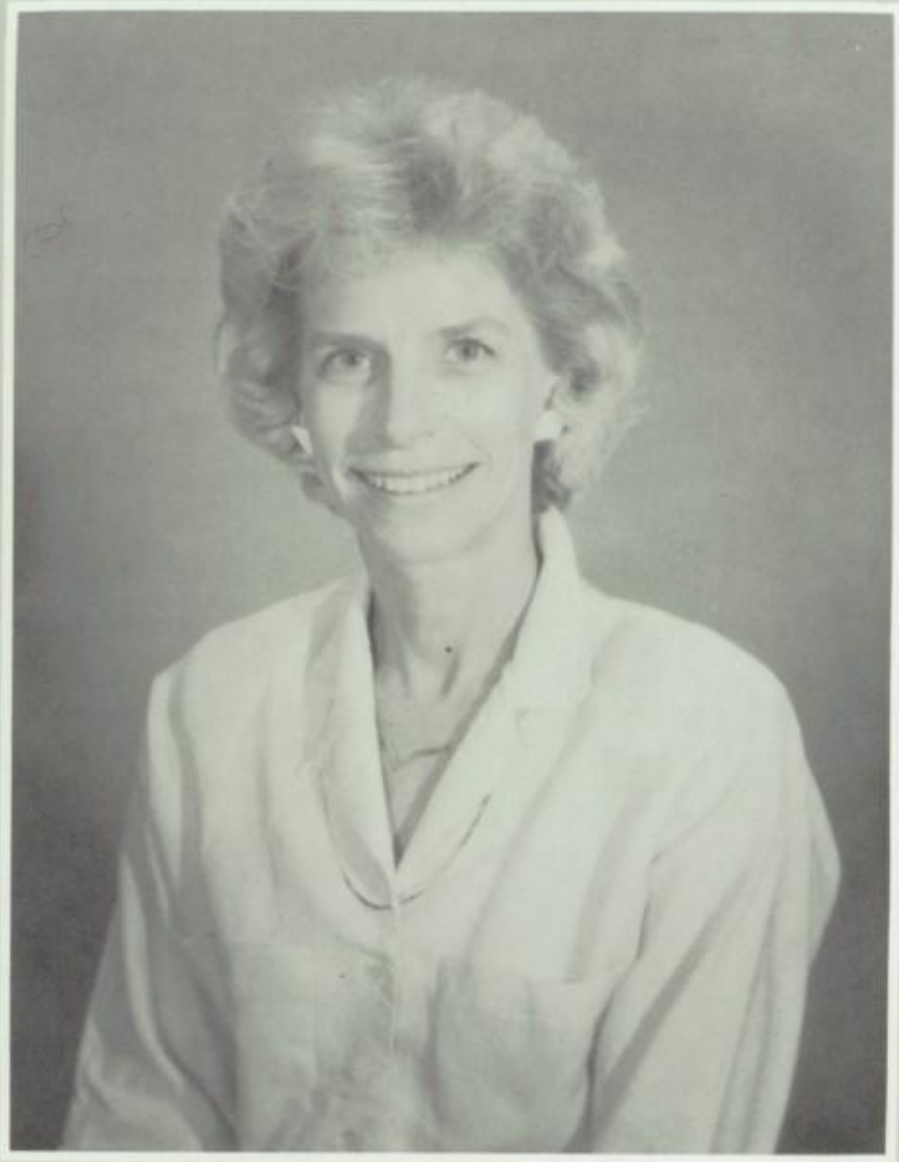
Gene Rhodes is an excellent teacher because he teachers not only English as a subject, but how to live a meaningful and fulfilling life through study, community service, professional activities, and religious work. He is an excellent teacher because he is concerned about students as individuals and has the warmth and love to establish meaningful relationships. He is truly a person to emulate. It is with love and sincere thanks that the students of Jacksonville High School dedicate the 1988 edition of the Ad Annos to Mr. Gene Rhodes.

TRIBUTES

Dorothy Padgett

Dorothy Padgett has been a teacher at Jacksonville High School for the past nineteen years. As someone who cared about her students and encouraged us to do our best in all our endeavors, she has earned our respect and admiration. She taught her students how to correctly express themselves with words, an ability needed by everyone throughout life. She has been an important influence on the minds of many young people, and we thank her. This period in her life has come to a close, but we wish her the best in her retirement and all the happiness she deserves.

Linda Johnson



Linda Johnson's presence at Jacksonville High School will be long remembered. Her many years here have seen students come and go, but she always remained. Each member of the student body and faculty will remember her invaluable work in the Vice Principal's Office and in the lunchroom. She was someone we could all look up to and trust. In our memories of Jacksonville High we will remember Ms. Johnson and her warm smile to anyone who passed her. The time has come to bid her farewell, but we want her to know that all of her hard work has been greatly aprreciated. Good luck in the future.

FACULTY WHO'S WHO

Most teachers are great friends with each other. They form close relationships as a result of working in an easy-going environment. However, some teachers are not too fond of their peers. Instead of resorting to violence or The People's Court, these irritated faculty members seek their revenge in the form of the 1987-1988 Faculty Who's Who. The first of its kind in many years, the Faculty Who's Who allows JHS teachers to slander and mudsling while remaining anonymous. Each teacher votes one two people for each catagory. Here are some of this year's catagories which weren't quite fit to print: Most Likely to Own an Edsel; Mr. and Ms. Couch Potato; Most Likely to Kill Buckwheat; Most Involved in Immoral Practices; Least Courteous; and Most Likely to be Misunderstood by a McDonald's Worker While Ordering at the Drive-through.

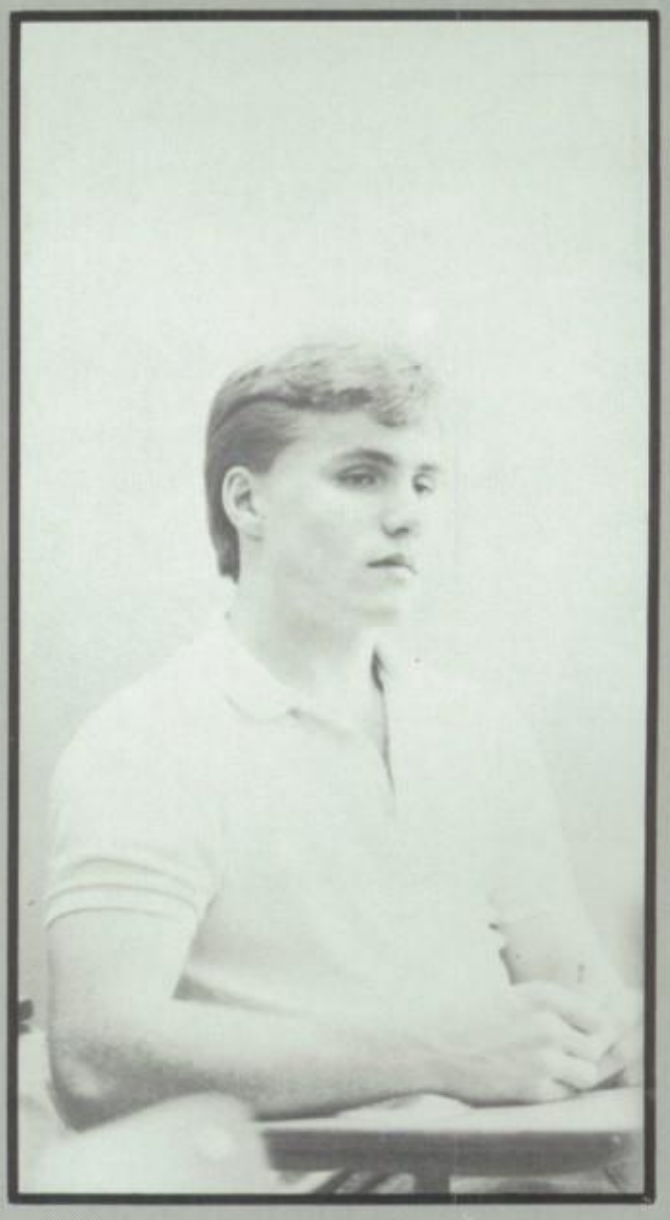
MAY 26, 1988

John Spaulding says: "I'm going to college, probably in Tennessee. I'll probably major in business. I plan to play basketball and run track in college.

"Graduate???" Yes, Jonny, that was the question!



Bob Viers, future Perry Mason, plans to be a lawyer and moonlight and a pimp of a male stripper.

WHAT NOW???

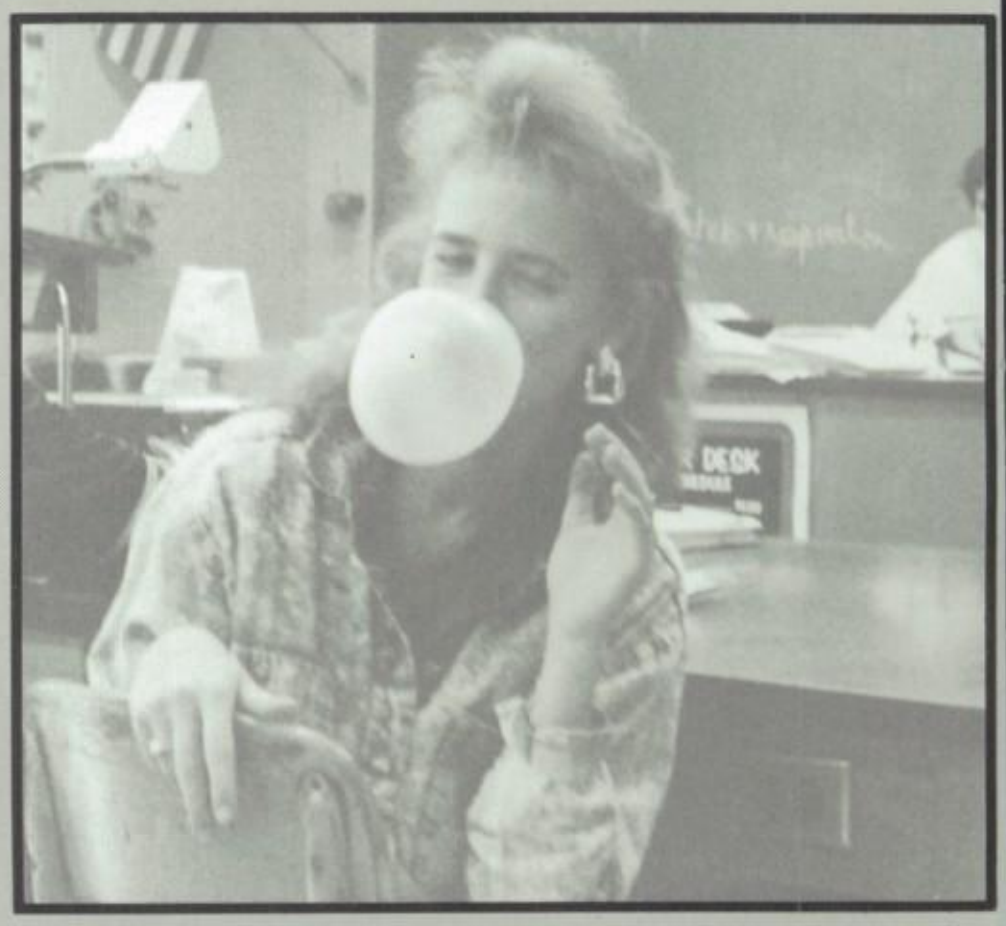
Michelle Nelson plans on "getting married, having kids. No, I'll go to Jax State first to get my ... no, you'll laugh! Never mind.

In the profound words of Tanya Shaw: "What if I don't know? What did everybody else say?"

Kacey Bitgood says: "I'm going to spend the summer in Massachusetts and save up my money. My parents are making me move out after college so I'm going to go to Jax State and get my own place. I'm considering majoring in some kind of psychology to be a juvenile counselor.

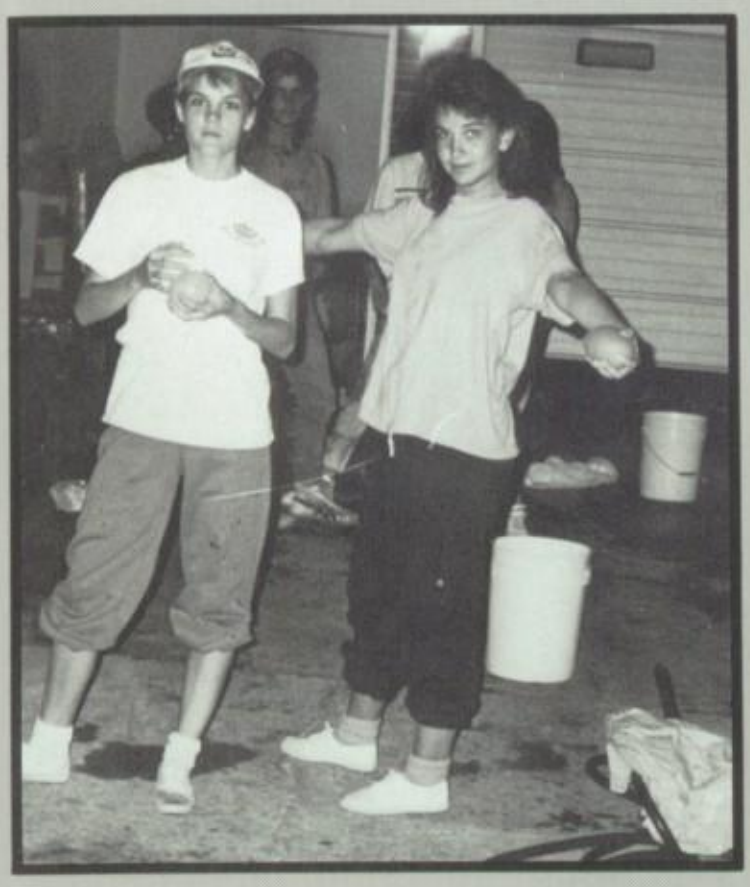
GRADUATE???

MOMENTS REMEMBERED . . .



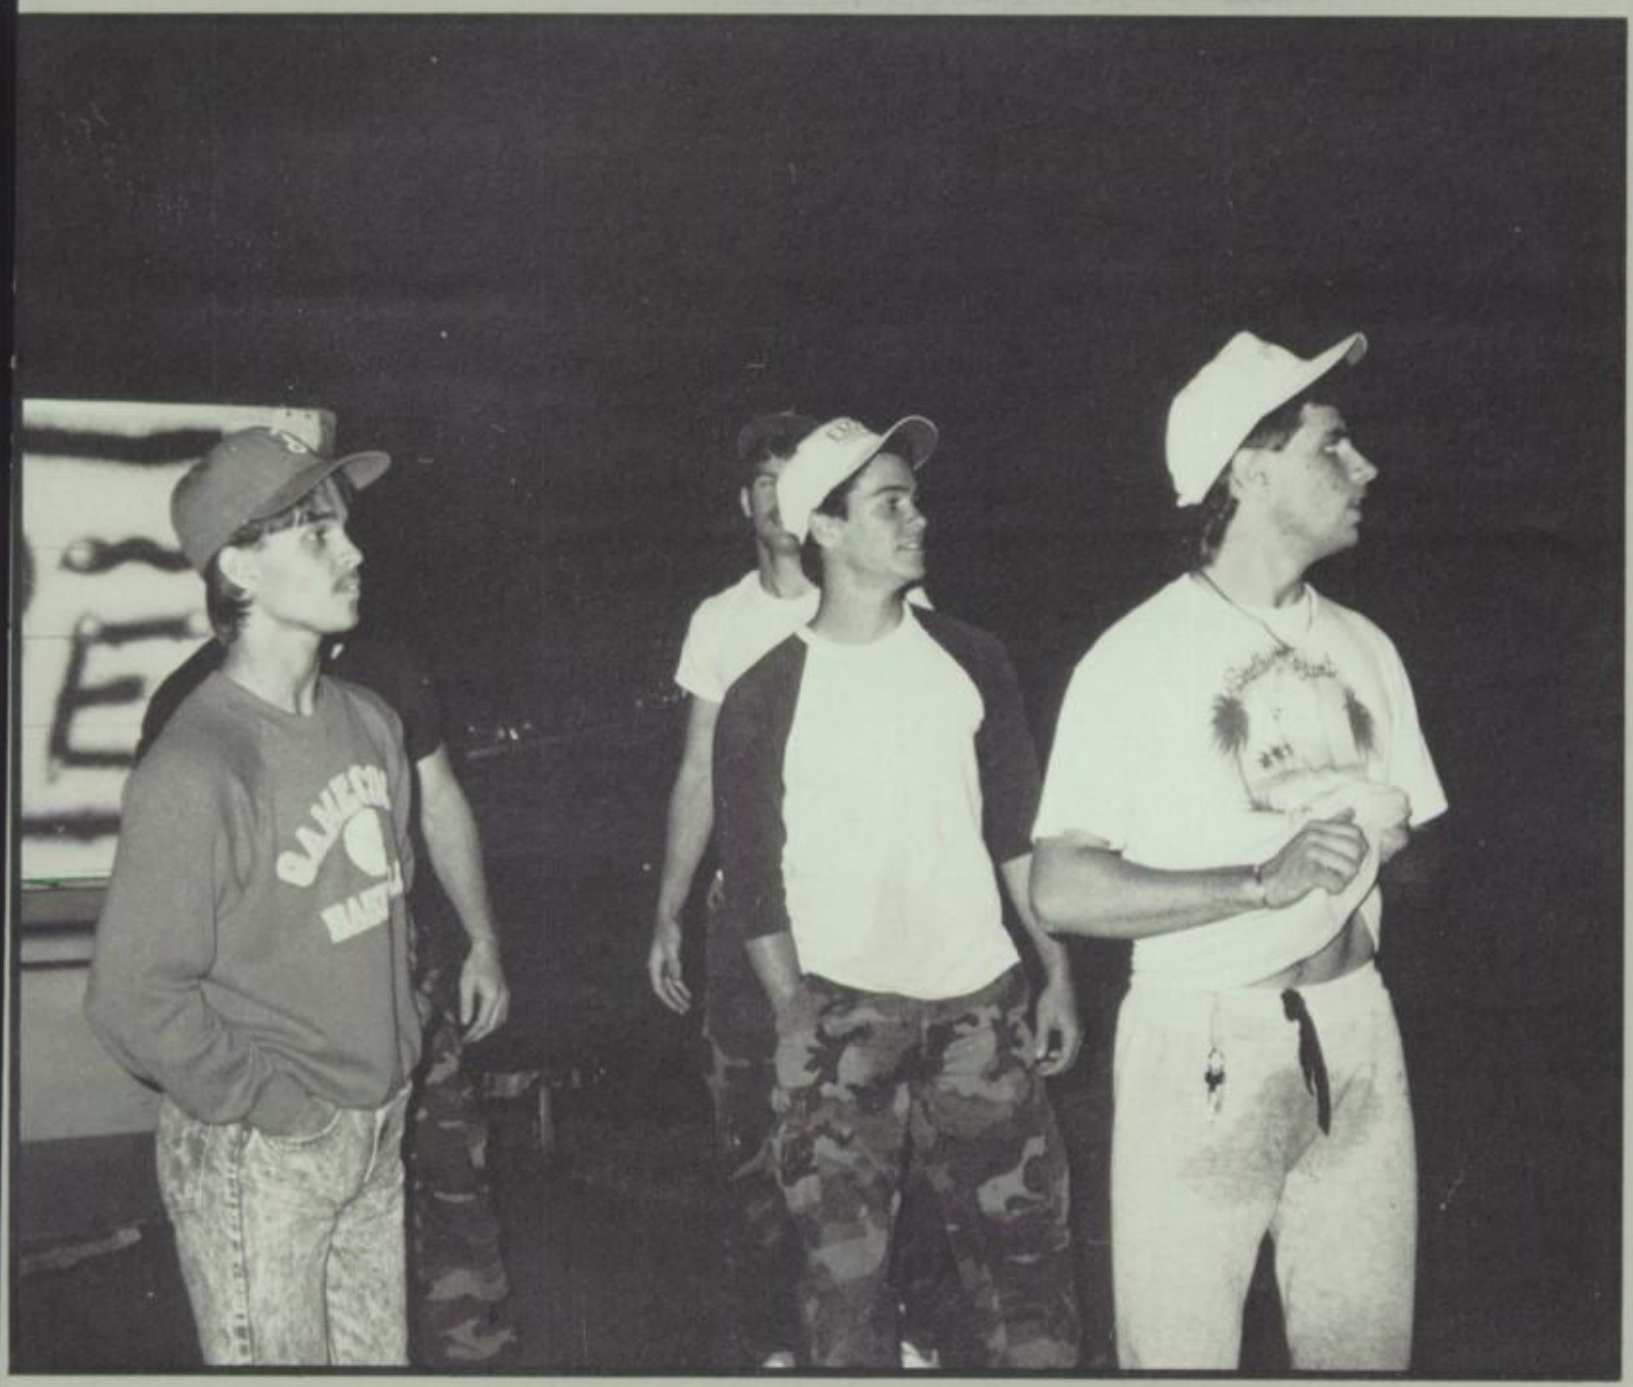
Jen-Jen says: "Look, Ma! No hands!"

The Mikado Christmas Dinner-fun for all.



"Okay, Karan, now touch your finger to your nose.

Well, what have you been up to?



"It's all right, Brent, we understand."

It's all right, Yeo Yang, you can guess.

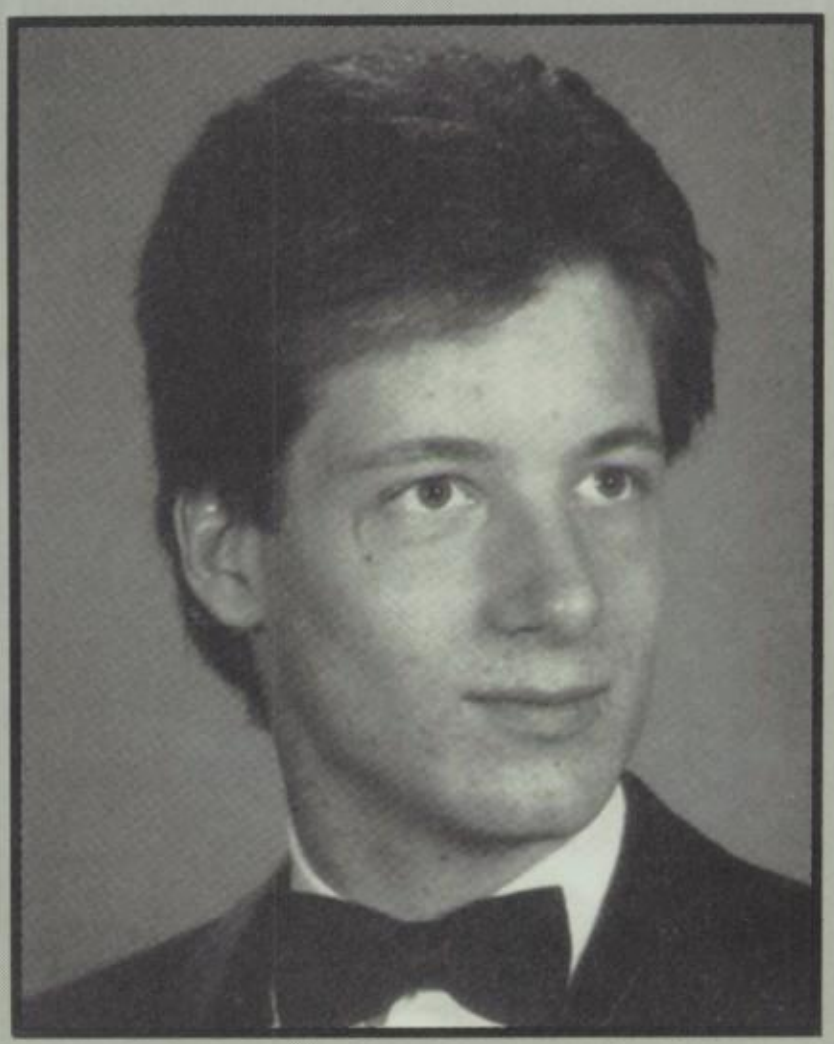
Tommy L. Wade



When the sun goes down
and the dust settles 'round,
the tears have run dry in my eyes.
I pull back the memories of my friend that I've lost
I keep asking myself — WHY?

For all those that know him
and all those that never could,
please listen to these words that I say.
Through all the pain and sorrow . . .
Be strong
I know that he wants it that way.

COLOPHON

The 1988 Ad Annos was prepared by the student staff of Jacksonville High School, Jacksonville, Alabama, with the help of Mr. David Zeigler of Jostens Printing and Publishing Company. The yearbook was published in the Jostens plant of Clarksville, Tennessee.

The cover is Craftline Embossed. The color is Blue Eric Olander. A deep grain with gold foil application as well as pale gold silkscreen application on the spine was used. The cover was designed by David Burnham, a senior at Jacksonville High School. The headline, "We've Only Just Begun." was done in 60 and 30 point in Brush Script.

The 240 pages consists of light gloss paper. The 1988 Ad Annos consists of 28 pages of full color. The staff used headings ranging from 36 to 60 point. Eight and ten point types were used for the caption and body copy. A blocked paragraph form was used. A one pica internal margin was used between all elements. The endsheets were done in light beige.

The 1988 Ad Annos staff would like to express their appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Miller and the photographers of Bill Miller Photography, the advertisers and patrons, David Ziegler, our Josens representative, the administration and faculty of JHS, and Mr. Duncan, our sponsor.
